COOLIDGE INAUGURATED AS PRESIDENT!

SIMPLE RITES ATTEND THE QUADRENNIAL CEREMONIES

Calvin Coolidge Takes Oath of Office to Serve First Four-Year Term as Most Powerful Executive in World and Head of World's Greatest Government—Dawes Becomes Vice-President Same Time—Chair of Vice-President, Vacated But Nineteen Months Ago When Warren G. Harding Left Presidential Office Through Death and Coolidge Took Sad and Solemn Oath to Complete Unexpired Term—Dignity Prevailed at Inauguration Ceremonies But Pomp and Costly Splendor Missing.

(By Associated Press).

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—Calvin Coolidge came today to the beginning of his first four-year term as President of the United States by a direct and overwhelming mandate of the people. With him came Charles Dawes to fill the office of Vice President, left vacant 19 months ago when solemnly and sadly Coolidge first took the Presidential Oath in the family homestead in Vermont, upon the death of Warren G. Harding. The ceremony of the inauguration, exemplifying the tastes of both men and the frugal policy they have pledged themselves to pursue in the conduct of the nation's affairs, was arranged at the President's direction, on the simplest scale in the past century. Beginning about 11:00 o'clock this morning with the 68th Congress entering its last hour, and continuing almost four hours, the inaugural program excluded all extravagant pomp and costly display but omitted none of the quiet dignity manifesting the ideals of the mighty Republic and the responsibilities of the world's most powerful office. Few more than 10,000 persons were allotted places in the traditional parade to make the historic pilgrimage along Pennsylvania Avenue, but these included ranking officials of many States and high dignitaries in civil and military life. The oath of office was first administered to Dawes. He was sworn in as Vice-President at 12:14 o'clock this afternoon. After the inauguration of Vice President Dawes in the Senate chamber, the crowd moved to the east portico of the Capitol where the oath of office was administered to President Calvin Coolidge at precisely 1:00 o'clock. Standing at the historic spot where a long line of predecessors had taken the oath as President, Coolidge bent and kissed the Bible in the hands of Chief Justice William Howard Taft and delivered his inaugural address.

HOME AND ABROAD

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—Clothed with a direct mandate from the people, Calvin Coolidge today dedicated himself and his administration to the lightening of the tax burden at home and to the promotion of peace through mutual understandings with the nations of the world. These two purposes were outlined in high relief by Mr. Coolidge in his inaugural address, delivered from a simply decorated platform.

DAWES OBJECTS SENATE RULES

ONE SENATOR CAN DELAY WILL OF TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY BY HOLDING THE FLOOR

PEOPLE ARE THE GOAT

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—Reform in the rules of the Senate is demanded by American public opinion and by the conscience of individual Senators, Vice President Charles Dawes declared today in his inaugural address. Under the present rules he said, the rights of the American people are overlooked. He referred especially to the present rules which permit a Senator to delay the proceedings indefinitely by holding the floor. Under this rule, Dawes said, a minority of even one Senator can prevent a vote on any measure which two-thirds of the Senate has agreed to bring to a vote.

ADDITIONS AT EVERY REVIVAL SERVICE AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Te revival services at the First Baptist church are growing in power and Dr. M. E. Hudson, the evangelist, is doing some great preaching. He is out of the ordinary, both in interpretation of the Scripture and the delivery of his message. He is a man of large experience and broad outlook. He was in France during the most trying days of the war, which has given him a large and sympathetic touch with humanity. The messages are attracting many people and securing their earnest attention. Additions are being made at every service. The sermon this morning was fine and the attendance at the day services is wonderfully good. The public is invited to attend these services at 10 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The music is of a high order.

METHODISTS DIVIDED ON UNIFICATION—A FIGHT IS UNDER WAY

(By Associated Press)

WACO, March 4.—Texas Methodism is split wide open over the plan of unification with the Northern church, according to reports from all sections of the state received at a meeting here today of 400 delegates. But leaders at today's meeting contend that the majority of the laymen and half the pastors, oppose unification under the present plan, and that the plan can not receive the necessary three-fourths vote when it comes up for final action next fall.

The tenor of today's meeting was expressed by Rev. George C. French of Sulphur Springs, when he said, "the bishops disagree, so I guess it is all right for the preachers to talk. It is time to stop listening to the so-called leaders of the church and give the laymen a chance to express themselves."

Reports indicated that Fort Worth is the only district definitely favoring the plan. A fund of $1,200 has been subscribed to assist in publicity opposing the present unification plan, it was announced and W. W. Lastinger of Waco was elected treasurer.

Committees to organize the campaign were named as follows: Central Texas, Dr. John M. Barcus, Corsicana and W. S. Roland, Temple, West Texas, Rev. M. K. Fred, Robstown, and Rev. W. M. Stokes, Lampasas; Northwest Texas, Rev. J. T. Griswold, Clarendon, and F. Turner, Amarillo. Steering committees will be formed for each presiding elder's district.

BORGLUM FACING FELONY CHARGES

DEPOSED SCULPTOR IS CITED IN GRAND JURY INDICTMENT RETURNED

J. C. TUCKER INCLUDED

(By Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Mar. 4.—Indictments charging larceny from house, simple larceny and malicious mischief were returned against Gutzon Borglum, deposed sculptor of the Stone Mountain Confederate Memorial, by the DeKalb county grand jury today. Larceny from house is a felony under the laws of Georgia. Two indictments were returned against J. C. Tucker, Borglum's superintendent of construction. The warrant on which Borglum was arrested and upon which are based the indictments returned today, involves the destruction of the model of the Confederate figures to be used in the memorial and the alleged removal of other models from the studio at Stone Mountain.

R. G. TURNER MURDER CASE CONTINUED TO MAY TERM OF BRAZOS DISTRICT COURT

Scheduled on the docket for district court this morning was the case of the State of Texas vs. R. G. Turner, charged with the murder of a convict last August near College Station. Due to sickness of an attorney for the defense and absence of some important witnesses, the case was continued over to May 28th, at the next term of district court.

FORTY SEVEN CAME FORWARD LAST NIGHT AT THE DR. SCOVILLE REVIVAL

That the Scoville revival being held in the Methodist tabernacle is one of the most popular things ever to come to College Station was evidenced by the mammoth crowd that jammed its way into the building last night. The musical program being put on nightly is a big drawing card.

The solo by Mrs. Scoville entitled, "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me," and the accompaniment by Mr. Farris was a splendid musical number. Guy E. Curtis, musical director for the company, led the opening song service in a very remarkable manner and had the crowd singing as one person. Rev. W. H. Matthews read the Scripture lesson and Rev. R. L. Brown and Rev. Axtell led in prayer.

The sermon last night was taken from the 8th chapter of Paul's letter to the Romans. It was one of the most spiritual Evangelist Scoville has yet delivered at College Station. Forty-seven answered the invitation call and definitely lined up with the church of their choice in College Station. Dr. Scoville said that there are just two conditions in one's relationship to God. All inside the circle are saved and all outside are lost. To illustrate this particular point the speaker referred to an incident that happened during the opening days of the World War when two German who had lived in America for years but who were visiting in Germany at the time war was declared. As the two brothers reached the Belgian line they were commanded to stop. The one produced his naturalization papers and was allowed to pass while the other, although he had lived in America the same length of time and paid taxes to the United States government, was made to return to Berlin because he had neglected to become a citizen of the U. S. A. The illustration drove home the gospel truth with terrific power. There are just two ways to become an heir. One is by a natural birth and the other is by adoption. Christ, who was and is the Son of God by birth, never preached a funeral. He spoke to the fig tree and it withered. He healed the withered hand in a word. He fed 5,000 hungry people with a mere morsel. He spoke the word and three people were brought back from the dead. Jesus' life was greater than any miracle He ever performed because He was what He was. He was the Master Mechanic of the universe. Every infidel dates his books from the birth of Jesus and dates on every tombstone all date from the birth of Christ. The manger cradled a baby. The cross upheld a man. But the grave opened to a God.

The weakling of a preacher with a white bow tie, a Prince Albert coat and posture and gesture who stands behind the sacred desk and says "Believe as it were, repent in a measure or you will be damned to a degree is untrue to his trust." It's not heaven or hell or some other place but its heaven or hell for every one. When Paul cried "Who shall condemn us?" he hurled that challenge to the ecclesiastical and civil courts, to the synagogue and senate, to Nero and the Sanhedrin. He feared not man or devils, he was a Holy Ghost preacher, and the crying need of this present hour is the John the Baptist and Paul kind of preaching. The old oaken sermon, the moss covered sermon and the old iron bound sermon ought to be thrown in the well. Every preacher ought to be a bubbling, boiling, blazing messenger with the fire of the Holy Ghost blazing in his heart and the courage of his convictions. Turn back the page of history and look with me at John Huss, the Bohemian reformer, burned at the stake; John Knox, the Scottish Protestant theologian and historian, kneeling in the snow crying, "Give me Scotland or give me death." Scotland is Presbyterian tonight. Shall I call the roll? Look at the heroes of faith who freely shed their blood that the gospel might be preached. The reason Paul got so hilarious about this marvelous salvation was because he knew that his Lord conquered death for him and paid the price of his sin and he also knew that God would not collect the same debt twice.

"Jesus paid it all, all to Him I owe, Sin had left a crimson stain, He washed it white as snow."

E. R. NASH SR. OF WACO WELL KNOWN IN BRYAN DIED TUESDAY NIGHT

(From Waco News-Tribune).

WACO, March 4.—E. R. Nash, Sr., president of the lumber firm of Nash-Robinson company, and dealer in Baptist educational and religious affairs for half a century, died here Tuesday night at 6:05, after an illness of two weeks. He was vice president of the First National Bank, trustee of Baylor university, deacon of the First Baptist church and prominently identified with the Central Texas Baptist sanitarium. The firm of Nash-Robinson company, which was founded in 1890, is capitalized for $500,000 and formerly had branches throughout central Texas, but is now restricted to its Waco and Marlin offices.

Mr. Nash was born in Ocala, Fla., in 1854, and was left an orphan at the age of 8, being reared by his mother's relatives until he moved to Bryan, Texas, in 1874. He married Miss Fannie Mitchell, daughter of Col. Harvey Hitchell, who was largely responsible for having A. M. College placed at Bryan. His first business partner was Thomas Griffith, who later founded the Griffith's Lumber company, of Dallas. Surviving relatives include three sons, J. M., E. R. Jr. and John H. Nash and one daughter, Mrs. J. N. Mitchell, all of Waco. The funeral will be Wednesday afternoon from the First Baptist church at 4 o'clock. Honorary pallbearers will be Dr. H. F. Connally, Dr. H. M. Lanham, the trustees of Baylor university, the deacons of the First Baptist church of Waco, the officers and directors of the First National bank of Waco, and other friends.

Active pallbearers will be Pat M. Jeff, Walter Gregg, Jr., John A. Hughes, L. W. Stephens, C. K. Durham, William L. Edmund, Walter King, Dr. Doyle Eastland, W. W. Woodson and T. D. Mitchell.

Miss Wesa Weddington, D. L. Weddington, O. W. Goolsbee, Harvey Weddington and R. L. Hearn motored from Bryan to Waco today to attend the funeral.

LEGISLATURE WORKING ON AMNESTY MEASURE

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Mar. 4.—Supporters of the Ferguson amnesty bill introduced by Senators Woodward and Russek and others so as to permit the legislature to remove the stigma of impeachment by enactment lost and won preliminary skirmishes in the house of representatives today.

A motion to set the bill for special session tomorrow was defeated, 71 to 54, when it lacked the necessary two-thirds majority. Consideration was brought a bit nearer when the house adjourned instead of recessing. Lines for and against the bill were unexpectedly drawn taut when Representative F. A. Dale made this motion. When the speaker ruled that a substitute motion offering a different bill was out of order, Representative George Purl of Dallas moved to make the special order for Thursday, at 2 p. m. Representative Dale immediately moved to table, which prevailed, 79 to 37. Representative J. W. Hall of Houston then moved to table the Dale motion, while motion prevailed, 71 to 54.

The second test came at adjournment when opponents of the bill tried to recess until tomorrow and keep the house calendar to the front, and the proponents urged adjournment so that motion would be hastened with the introduction of the senate calendar. The motion to adjourn prevailed, 73 to 44, which causes the senate calendar to come up tomorrow, and the amnesty bill is not far from the top, it was said. It was indicated that the bill must wait its turn on the calendar and not be advanced by a unanimous consent agreement when Representative J. W. Hall of Houston today objected when the Dale motion was first made.

Representative Hall last week said he would object to any unanimous consent proposal on the ground the bill affects but one man, former Governor James E. Ferguson, while there are several bills ahead of it that affect the entire state.

LAND OF FORMER GOVERNOR JIM IS SOLD AUCTION TODAY

(By Associated Press)

MERIDIAN, March 4.—At sheriff's sale today, Dan A. Japhet of Houston, bought 5,379 acres of former governor James E. Ferguson's Bosque county ranch, which adjoins the city of Meridian, for $50,000 to satisfy a judgment of $109,357.61 in favor rendered in the 61st district court of Harris county in a case filed as Dan A. Japhet vs. R. Johnson, et al.

REPRESENTATIVE T. K. IRWIN IS HIT BY BRICK KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS

Dallas Member and Chief Prosecutor of Legislative Prison Investigating Committee Unable To Describe Occupants of Car from Which Brick Was Thrown—Cannot Explain Assault.

(By Associated Press).

AUSTIN, March 4.—Representative T. K. Irwin of Dallas, chief prosecutor in the Legislative Prison Investigation, was struck and knocked unconscious by a brick hurled from an automobile as he was walking to his hotel last night. Today he was in bed at the hotel, recovering from the blow. Irwin was unable to give a description of the car occupants and said he could give no reason for the attack. He did not know whether it had any connection with the prison investigation in which he took a leading part.

FRONT OF JENKINS DRUG STORE BEING REMODELED—STAIRWAY TO BE PUT IN

The front of the E. J. Jenkins Drug Store is undergoing some repairs of quite an extensive nature. The work is being done by Contractor C. E. Jenkins, brother of the druggist. The work includes the altering of the entrance to make it straight in instead of slanting, the same plate glass being used and which will permit of extra space on one side of the front where a stairway will be built leading to the offices on the second floor.

MRS. KATE WURZBACH OF SAN ANTONIO DEAD

(By Associated Press).

SAN ANTONIO, March 4.—Death came suddenly to Mrs. Kate Wurzbach, 76 years old, mother of Representative Harry M. Wurzbach, at the family home here early Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Wurzbach was the wife of the late C. L. Wurzbach, county judge. She was the mother of nine children.

W. S. Barnett, formerly of Bryan but now of San Antonio, representing the Nyal Drug Company, was in Bryan today visiting former friends. While here he made arrangements with the Smith Drug Co. for a free fish day to be put on just as soon as the merchandise arrives. It will be remembered Mr. Barnett married a Bryan girl, Miss Helen Peverly.

COMPROMISES THAT PEOPLE MAKE KEEP FROM GOING THE SECOND MILE

"The Devil's Compromise" was Rev. T. A. Searcy's subject Tuesday night at the Free Baptist church. Rev. Searcy said in part: "I talked to you a few nights ago on 'No compromise.' Tonight I want to show you how Satan works for a compromise. He knows that if he can get a compromise he has won the victory. It is not the down-and-outer who most pleases Satan, the devil would rather have his subjects in the pulpit than in the prison. The devil says you may be lacking some things but then you are as good as most of the church members. Beloved, it is not a question of whether we are as good as most of the church members, but whether we are doing what Jesus teaches that we should do."

"In order that we may be able to get it more clearly before you we want to notice some of the compromises that Pharaoh offered when Moses was trying to get the Israelites out of bondage. We are to understand that Pharaoh was a type of Satan, and Moses was a type of Jesus Christ. Moses wanted to go three days' journey and here is Pharaoh's first compromise, go worship in the land but keep it a secret, let no one know it for you may not hold out, stay with the old gang. Brethren, this can't be done but Satan is undoubtedly deceiving people right here."

"Then let us notice his second compromise. Pharaoh said you can go and worship in the wilderness but not far away. He is saying that to you today. Do not make any big show, go forward but don't join, be a Christian at home. But if we notice the plagues we will see that this did not satisfy God."

"The third compromise was to go the three days' journey but leave your children in the land and how many church folks are doing that today! How often do we hear excuses offered for the children. We hear them say, 'Oh, it is too hard on the children to stay for an hour; it is too tiresome; they can't understand what the preacher is saying,' and the like. But it isn't too tiresome for them to sit two hours on a three-inch board at a circus. Dear people, it looks like you could see that this is the devil's compromise."

COOLIDGE SIGNS IMPORTANT BILLS

ONE OF LAST ACTS BEFORE INAUGURATION IS TO AFFIX SIGNATURE

NAVAL OMNIBUS BILL

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—Several important bills were signed today by President Calvin Coolidge after he arrived at the Capitol for the inauguration ceremony. Among these were the naval omnibus bill, the second deficiency bill which passed the Senate this morning, and the legislative appropriation bill with its salary increases for members of the cabinet and congress.

BRYAN TO EDGE ROAD PUT IN FINE SHAPE—BRIDGE APPROACHES FIXED, TOO

To County Commissioners Emmett Holland and John M. Moore belongs the credit for the fine condition of the Bryan to Edge highway. It has recently been lightly graded and is in the best shape it has ever been. The approaches to culverts and bridges have been graded up and made smooth and it is now a pleasure to ride over this long stretch of Brazos county highway. Always give honor where honor is due.

"Then the fourth compromise was to take the family but leave the flocks and herds, and many church people are doing that thing today. They have come into the church but they have left their property on the outside and to the devil. We cannot do much serving God until we have brought all our possessions and consecrated them to His service."

"But when the last plague came, which was the death angel, causing all the weeping, then it was that Pharaoh called for Moses in the night and order him with his people to go the three days' journey. But he did not give up without a struggle. The devil never gives up without a struggle. Friends let us go the three days' journey for we can do it in spite of all that the devil can do, not in our own strength, of course, but through Christ who strengtheneth us."

Services at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. through Thursday. The public is cordially invited to all services.

As the two brothers reached the Belgian line they were commanded to stop. The one produced his naturalization papers and was allowed to pass while the other, although he had lived in America the same length of time and paid taxes to the United States government, was made to return to Berlin because he had neglected to become a citizen of the U. S. A. The illustration drove home the gospel truth with terrific power. There are just two ways to become an heir. One is by a natural birth and the other is by adoption. Christ, who was and is the Son of God by birth, never preached a funeral. He spoke to the fig tree and it withered. He healed the withered hand in a word. He fed 5,000 hungry people with a mere morsel. He spoke the word and three people were brought back from the dead. Jesus' life was greater than any miracle He ever performed because He was what He was. He was the Master Mechanic of the universe. Every infidel dates his books from the birth of Jesus and dates on every tombstone all

DEPOSED SCULPTOR IS CITED IN GRAND JURY INDICTMENT RETURNED

(By Associated Press)
ATLANTA, Mar. 4.—Indictments charging larceny from house, simple larceny and malicious mischief were returned against Gutzon Borglum, deposed sculptor of the Stone Mountain Confederate Memorial, by the DeKalb county grand jury today. Larceny from house is a felony under the laws of Georgia. Two indictments were returned against J. C. Tucker, Borglum's superintendent of construction. The warrant on which Borglum was arrested and upon which are based the indictments returned today, involves the destruction of the model of the Confederate figures to be used in the memorial and the alleged removal of other models from the studio at Stone Mountain.

R. G. TURNER MURDER CASE CONTINUED TO MAY TERM OF BRAZOS DISTRICT COURT

Scheduled on the docket for district court this morning was the case of the State of Texas vs. R. G. Turner, charged with the murder of a convict last August near College Station. Due to sickness of an attorney for the defense and absence of some important witnesses, the case was continued over to May 28th, at the next term of district court.

LEGISLATURE WORKING ON AMNESTY MEASURE

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Mar. 4.—Supporters of the Ferguson amnesty bill introduced by Senators Woodward and Russell and others so as to permit the legislature to remove the stigma of impeachment by enactment lost and won preliminary skirmishes in the house of representatives today.

A motion to set the bill for special session tomorrow was defeated, 71 to 54, when it lacked the necessary two-thirds majority. Consideration was brought a bit nearer when the house adjourned instead of recessing. Lines for and against the bill were unexpectedly drawn taut when Representative F. A. Dale made this motion. When the speaker ruled that a substitute motion offering a different bill was out of order, Representative George Purl of Dallas moved to make the special order for Thursday, at 2 p. m. Representative Dale immediately moved to table, which prevailed, 79 to 37. Representative J. W. Hall of Houston then moved to table the Dale motion, while motion prevailed, 71 to 54.

The second test came at adjournment when opponents of the bill tried to recess until tomorrow and keep the house calendar to the front, and the proponents urged adjournment so that motion would be hastened with the introduction of the senate calendar. The motion to adjourn prevailed, 73 to 44, which causes the senate calendar to come up tomorrow, and the amnesty bill is not far from the top, it was said. It was indicated that the bill must wait its turn on the calendar and not be advanced by a unanimous consent agreement when Representative J. W. Hall of Houston today objected when the Dale motion was first made.

Representative Hall last week said he would object to any unanimous consent proposal on the ground the bill affects but one man, former Governor James E. Ferguson, while there are several bills ahead of it that affect the entire state.

Ferguson's Bosque county ranch, which adjoins the city of Meridian, for $50,000 to satisfy a judgment of $109,357.61 in his favor rendered in the 61st district court of Harris county in a case filed as Dan A. Japhet vs. R. Johnson, et al.

(From Waco News-Tribune).
WACO, March 4.—E. R. Nash, Sr., president of the lumber firm of Nash-Robinson company, and dealer in Baptist educational and religious affairs for half a century, died here Tuesday night at 6:05, after an illness of two weeks. He was vice president of the First National Bank, trustee of Baylor university, deacon of the First Baptist church and prominently identified with the Central Texas Baptist sanitarium. Mr. Nash was born in Ocala, Fla., in 1854, and was left an orphan at the age of 8, being reared by his mother's relatives until he moved to Bryan, Texas, in 1874. He married Miss Fannie Mitchell, daughter of Col. Harvey Mitchell, who was largely responsible for having A. and M. College placed at Bryan. His first business partner was Thomas Griffiths, who later founded the Griffiths Lumber company, of Dallas. Surviving relatives include three sons, J. M., E. R. Jr. and John H. Nash, and one daughter, Mrs. J. N. Mitchell, all of Waco. The funeral will be Wednesday afternoon from the First Baptist church at 4 o'clock. Honorary pallbearers will be Dr. H. F. Connally, Dr. H. M. Lanham, the trustees of Baylor university, the deacons of the First Baptist church of Waco, the officers and directors of the First National bank of Waco, and other friends.

REPRESENTATIVE T. K. IRWIN IS HIT BY BRICK KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS

Dallas Member and Chief Prosecutor of Legislative Prison Investigating Committee Unable To Describe Occupants of Car from Which Brick Was Thrown—Cannot Explain Assault.

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 4.—Representative T. K. Irwin of Dallas, chief prosecutor in the Legislative Prison Investigation, was struck and knocked unconscious by a brick hurled from an automobile as he was walking to his hotel last night. Today he was in bed at the hotel, recovering from the blow. Irwin was unable to give a description of the car occupants and said he could give no reason for the attack. He did not know whether it had any connection with the prison investigation in which he took a leading part.

FRONT OF JENKINS DRUG STORE BEING REMODELED—STAIRWAY TO BE PUT IN

The front of the E. J. Jenkins Drug Store is undergoing some repairs of quite an extensive nature. The work is being done by Contractor C. E. Jenkins, brother of the druggist. The work includes the altering of the entrance to make it straight in instead of slanting, the same plate glass being used and which will permit of extra space on one side of the front where a stairway will be built leading to the offices on the second floor.

MRS. KATE WURZBACH OF SAN ANTONIO DEAD

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, March 4.—Death came suddenly to Mrs. Kate Wurzbach, 76 years old, mother of Representative Harry M. Wurzbach, at the family home here early Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Wurzbach was the wife of the late C. L. Wurzbach, county judge. She was the mother of nine children.

W. S. Barnett, formerly of Bryan but now of San Antonio, representing the Nyal Drug Company, was in Bryan today visiting former friends. While here he made arrangements with the Smith Drug Co. for a free fish day to be put on just as soon as the merchandise arrives. It will be remembered Mr. Barnett married a Bryan girl, Miss Helen Peverly.

COMPROMISES THAT PEOPLE MAKE KEEP FROM GOING THE SECOND MILE

"The Devil's Compromise" was Rev. T. A. Searcy's subject Tuesday night at the Free Baptist church. Rev. Searcy said in part: "I talked to you a few nights ago on 'No Compromise.' Tonight I want to show you how Satan works for a compromise. He knows that if he can get a compromise he has won the victory. It is not the down-and-out who most pleases Satan, the devil would rather have his subjects in the pulpit than in the prison. The devil says you may be lacking some things but then you are as good as most of the church members. Beloved, it is not a question of whether we are as good as most of the church members, but whether we are doing what Jesus teaches that we should do."

"In order that we may be able to get it more clearly before you we want to notice some of the compromises that Pharaoh offered when Moses was trying to get the Israelites out of bondage. We are to understand that Pharaoh is a type of Satan, and Moses was a type of Jesus Christ. Moses wanted to go three days' journey and here is Pharaoh's first compromise, go worship in the land but keep it a secret, let no one know it for you may not hold out, stay with the old gang. Brethren, this can't be done but Satan is undoubtedly deceiving people right here.

"Then let us notice his second compromise. Pharaoh said you can go and worship in the wilderness but not far away. He is saying that to you today. Do not make any big show, go forward but don't join, be a Christian at home. But if we notice the plagues we will see that this did not satisfy God.

"The third compromise was to go the three days' journey but leave your children in the land and how many church folks are doing that today! How often do we hear excuses offered for the children. We hear them say, 'Oh, it is too hard on the children to stay for an hour; it is too tiresome; they can't understand what the preacher is saying,' and the like. But it isn't too tiresome for them to sit two hours on a three-inch board at a circus. Dear people, it looks like you could see that this is the devil's compromise.

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—Several important bills were signed today by President Calvin Coolidge after he arrived at the Capitol for the inauguration ceremony. Among these were the naval omnibus bill, the second deficiency bill which passed the Senate this morning, and the legislative appropriation bill with its salary increases for members of the cabinet and congress.

BRYAN TO EDGE ROAD PUT IN FINE SHAPE—BRIDGE APPROACHES FIXED, TOO

To County Commissioners Emmett Holland and John M. Moore belongs the credit for the fine condition of the Bryan to Edge highway. It has recently been lightly graded and is in the best shape it has ever been. The approaches to culverts and bridges have been graded up and made smooth and it is now a pleasure to ride over this long stretch of Brazos county highway. Always give honor where honor is due.

COMPROMISES THAT PEOPLE MAKE KEEP FROM GOING THE SECOND MILE

"Then the fourth compromise was to take the family but leave the flocks and herds, and many church people are doing that thing today. They have come into the church but they have left their property on the outside and to the devil. We cannot do much serving God until we have brought all our possessions and consecrated them to His service.

THE KIND WE LIKE

Lubbock must be a mighty damp, noisy place. According to the Avalanche there's a "crying need" for a new hotel, new residences, more street paving, more shade trees, and more rooming houses. Just think of all that bunched crying at the same time—Mineral Wells Index.

That is the kind of "sob sisters" needed in every town. And the of tender they cry and the longer and more in unison, the greater results they will get. The value of a damp eye can't be estimated. It will put things over when nothing else will. Every citizen in every town should join the "crying need" crowd.—Bryan Eagle.

The editor of the Eagle knows what she is talking about. Being a woman, she knows the value of "crying" for what she wants, therefore the argument, as far as we are concerned, is closed.—Mineral Wells Index.

WHY NEWSPAPERS ERR

The Rockdale Reporter thus enumerates "some reasons why newspapers make mistakes": "(1) They depend 80 per cent of the time on the other fellow. (2) No matter how carefully written a story is, there is always at least 50 different interpretations that can be given to the angle if one desires to do this. (3) The newspaper man as a general rule is constantly working under high pressure. He has the same amount of time to write a column story as one paragraph. Man is not mechanically perfect. (4) Although a clear mind is a prerequisite he is human and sometimes lets his mind get cloudy. (5) In an effort to be fair he sometimes offends both parties. That is the price he pays. (6) The American language is a cross-word puzzle in itself. It implies too much. (7) Just like the reporter writing his story believes he has made himself clear, the man in giving his story makes the wrong inflection and thus leaves the wrong impression with the man who is supposed to interpret him." And there are others, too numerous to mention.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know: If you will take a geographically correct map of Texas and stick a pin through the center and put it over Nashville, Tennessee, the eastern end of Texas will reach to Raleigh, North Carolina; the western to Little Rock, Arkansas; the northern end to Chicago, Illinois; and the southern to the Gulf of Mexico. It is true Texas isn't square and all the sections reached by these projecting points would not be as covered with a solid block, yet you have a good illustration of the immensity of the State's area.

Did you know: The total area of Texas is 265,896 square miles, of which the land area comprises 262,398 square miles and the water 3,498 square miles.

Did you know: The total farm land area of Texas amounts to over 178,000 square miles.

Did you know: That Texas is 53,000 square miles larger than France, 83,000 square miles larger than Germany, and 144,000 square miles larger than the United Kingdom. Texas' farm area is nearly equal to the total area of Germany.

With this knowledge who would venture a forecast of what the future holds for Texas. While Texas is largest in area it also has been richly endowed by nature with wonderful resources of soil, climate and minerals. Its development is in the hands of its citizens and each and every one of them should make a personal study of their state so as to be able to meet their responsibility.

SOME GOOD ADVICE

Pay your debts as soon as you get your money in your pocket. Do without what you don't need. Speak your mind when necessary. Hold your tongue when prudent. Speak to a friend in a steady coat. If you can't lend a man money, tell him why. If you don't want to, do the same. Cut acquaintances who lack principle. Bear with infirmities, but not with vices. Respect honesty, despise duplicity. Wear your old clothes till you can pay for new ones. Aim at comfort and propriety, not fashion. Acknowledge your ignorance, and don't pretend knowledge you haven't got. Entertain your friends but never beyond your means. Then you will always have money to pay your bills.—Anonymous.

Recently we heard a visiting man from England say the Texas girls looked like Indian squaws and wondered why they paint up so. We have never been able to fathom why a naturally beautiful young girl will try to disguise herself with a coat of enamel and paint. The ugly freckled face girl and the old, wrinkled woman for being unnatural, but a pretty fresh, young and youthful maiden, never!

We take it that the head coach in athletics at A. and M. College is a reliable man. At least we judge so by his name, which is Bible.—Texas Mesquiter.

PLANT A TREE TODAY

Every Bryan home owner should remember this is tree planting time and the opportune moment to plant a tree, thus adding another touch of modern civic beauty to our town. Nothing so adds to the beauty of a town like the systematic planting of trees and besides, they are one of the greatest assets any city can have. They furnish beauty, pleasure and comfort for their shade for the wayfarer whether he be the visitor or home resident and add attractiveness that nothing can take their place. "Trees are living things," says W. P. Maloney in an article which appeared recently in the Dallas News. "They are friendly. To know trees well is to love them. They are among the most lovable things on earth. They do so much good, help us in so many different ways and yield so many essential things of every day life that they are really among the most indispensable natural objects on the face of the earth. They yield us luscious fruits and wholesome nuts—their lives are sacrificed to supply material for our homes and our furniture. The forest is nature's playground. Trees are the friends protectors of all wild life and sanctuaries for the birds, where they sing their sweetest songs, mate and nest and rear their young."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

(Taken from the files of the Bryan Daily Eagle, March 3, 1900, twenty-five years ago):

Local News Notes.

By previous appointment, a strong committee from Bryan, composed of representative business men and citizens, met Superintendent Leroy Price and Judge Steadman of the I. and G. N. railway of Calvert yesterday afternoon and the result of the meeting was that the C. W. & B. V. railway will positively be extended to Bryan if the people of this city will secure the right-of-way and depot grounds and guarantee a liberal amount of patronage, all things being equal. The people of Bryan should respond to this proposition without hesitation. No town in Texas, perhaps, has ever had such a liberal proposition. No bonus is asked—nothing but the simple proposition above set forth. Nearly all the members of the large committee signed the agreement yesterday. The contract must be signed and forwarded to Palestine by Sunday morning, and if the proposition is accepted by the people of this city, the engineers will be placed in the field by Monday or Tuesday. Now is the time to act—now is the golden opportunity for Bryan. Let no man refuse to do his part. The road from Calvert to Lewis Switch was completed in about thirty days. The extension to Bryan will require more time but will be pushed with equal rapidity when the contract is signed. The citizens of Bryan, or many of them, have already practically agreed to the terms proposed and about $5,000 has been subscribed toward the fund for depot grounds and right-of-way. The present movement held its active beginning in a meeting held here in February when L. L. McInnis, R. S. Webb, D. C. Zuber, W. E. Saunders, Henry Rohde, and J. W. English were appointed a committee to solicit donations. They went to work with the result above indicated. At that time an executive committee was also appointed, composed of J. L. Fountain, Y. N. Cole, M. Parker, J. W. Howell, G. M. Brandon, S. B. Buchanan, John Daly, J. W. Coulter, J. A. Meyers and L. L. Innis.

Whenever the farmer in the South shall eat bread from his own fields and meat from his own pastures, and disturbed by no creditor and enslaved by no debt, shall sit amidst his teeming gardens and orchards and vineyards and dairies and barnyards, pitching his crops in his own wisdom, and growing them in independence, making cotton his clean surplus, and selling it in his own time, and in his chosen market—and not at his master's bidding—getting his pay in cash and not in a receipted mortgage that discharges his debt, but doesn't restore his freedom—then shall be the breaking of the fullness of our day.—Henry W. Grady.

Holidays in limited numbers are all right but this practice of closing up and stopping business ever so often is all wrong. More than half the people that take these holidays don't observe them from any sense of patriotic duty but simply to get off from work. We contend the man who works and plants a tree on George Washington's birthday is certainly more patriotic than the man who merely observed it as a holiday.

Money is a silent talker but a most effective one and to many has a sound that is more convincing than words.

THREE ITALIANS ARE ARRESTED ON CHARGE STEALING SOME HOGS

Lee and Joe Reina and Sam Mondella, Italians of the community on Sandy Point road, about five miles southeast of Bryan, were arrested Saturday by Sheriff Jess Conlee on a charge of having stolen some pigs from farmers of the same section. Their examining trial was scheduled for this afternoon. Lee and Joe Reina are said to be brothers and Mondella is a cousin. The Reinas and Mondella live on adjoining farms.

Constable J. D. Conlee, Sr., said that the man had confessed to the stealing. The Reina boys face four cases and Mondella three. W. H. Rawls lost one hog; Tom Fingers, one; Joe Neal, one, and Womack Smith, one. Following their arrest the Italians remained in jail over Sunday and were released on bonds of $500 each, said Constable Conlee.

BRYAN PARTY VISITED A GREAT COMMUNITY MEETING HELD CROSS

Secretary Sam E. Eberstadt of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce and County Agent C. L. Beason report a splendid meeting at Cross on last Friday night, February 27. Notwithstanding the threatening weather there was a full house to enjoy the program of songs, recitations, talks, etc. Flynn McDuffey, formerly a Brazos county resident, presided at the meeting, perhaps the most interesting part of which were talks by Jim Kurten and Britten Henderson of the Kurten club, Jim Kurten speaking in the main of the benefits of club work to both boys and girls and urging the boys and girls of the Cross community to be a hundred per cent in club work. Britten Henderson gave a very interesting account of his trip to Chicago, calling attention to the wonderful recognition given the club members on every occasion and describing the many elaborate banquets given in honor of the 3,000 club delegates in such a way as to kindle the ambition of every boy present to put forth his best efforts in an endeavor to win a trip similar to those he and Jim Kurten had enjoyed as a result of club activities.

Repaid for Service.

R. W. Persons, assistant state agent in charge of boys' club work for the extension service, stated that for two weeks he had been telling to hundreds of boys and girls in the eastern part of the State the story of the achievements of Jim Kurten and Britten Henderson. Mr. Persons stated that he and County Agent I. W. Ross had attended 16 club meetings in Grimes county during the past 56 hours, and that the total attendance was 1,200. In calling attention to the splendid records made in Brazos county, he stated that such had been made possible through the hearty co-operation of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce and the untiring service rendered by the Secretary Sam E. Eberstadt. In reply to the complimentary remarks paid him, Mr. Eberstadt stated he got consolation in contributing volunteer service outside of his commercial organization in thinking that he, like the old man mentioned in the poem, "The Builder," might be helping to build a bridge for some youth who would pass that way. Mr. Eberstadt urged the Cross people to be loyal to their local town and home community, but assured them that a welcome would always be extended them by the business men of Bryan, "The Queen City of South Central Texas."

Beason Gets Applause.

County Agent C. L. Beason was introduced by Mr. Persons. He prefaced his talk by teaching a number of songs applicable or appropriate to the occasion, which all present sang with much enthusiasm. He began his talk by telling a number of humorous stories in his own inimitable fashion. Community work in Brazos county, an explanation of the organization and function, as well as history of this work in the different sections of Brazos, boys' and girls' club work and its accomplishments, were all included in Mr. Beason's talk, though he had to pause frequently because of spontaneous applause from the 200 or more assembled for the meeting. In closing, the county agent paid a tribute to the hearty, loyal, consistent and constant co-operation of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce through its secretary, Sam E. Eberstadt.

FINE PROGRAM GIVEN COUNTY FEDERATION WOMEN'S CLUB MEET

The County Federation of Women's Club of Brazos County met in regular monthly session at Carnegie library auditorium, Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. P. S. Mangum, president, in the chair, and Miss Essie Shealey, secretary, at her desk. Twenty-six women were present, and a splendid spirit of interest and co-operation was manifested. Every meeting of this federation is better than the one before, and the members are receiving much of pleasure and profit from the organization.

An unusual treat was given the members at the Saturday meeting when Service department of the A. and M. College, gave a talk on "Women's Organizations in Texas," emphasizing and commending the work being accomplished by the home demonstration clubs. Mrs. Will Henry of the Edge club read a paper on "The Necessity of Correct Diet for Health." The report of Mrs. W. C. Hill of Edge, which gave an idea of what Mrs. Hill has accomplished in the canning of meats during the past year, was then given. Figures showed that Mrs. Hill had canned for others besides herself, so expert is she in this important art of cooking. Just how many cans she had put up was not given, but in the report of the sale of the cans, which amounted to $500, an estimate of the number can be arrived at. Mrs. Hill was complimented upon her splendid report.

"The Care of Baby Chicks" was the subject of a fine talk by Mrs. J. L. Broach of Tabor. Mrs. George Jones of Reliance sang a beautiful little song, "Keep on Smiling," and Miss Ruth Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Martin of Bryan, gave an instrumental number.

Miss Laura Belle Roten, home demonstration agent of Brazos county, led a round table discussion on the subject of the encampment to be held for District No. 2, which includes Brazos county, at Livingston, Texas, during July.

Six communities were represented at the Saturday meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Brazos County, as follows: Edge, Tabor, Reliance, Steele's Store, College, and Bryan.

LONGHORNS WIN OVER AGGIES

(By Associated Press)

Esquivel, with eight points to his credit, and Foster, because of his wonderful guarding, were the outstanding players for Texas. Kyle and Captain Washburn excelled for the losers. Free Baptist Revival a Success

For the past week there has been a most successful revival conducted at the Free Baptist church in this city. Many things have contributed to the remarkable success, the enthusiasm and co-operation of the church membership and the friends of the denomination; the assistance rendered by the pastor Rev. C. B. Thompson and the state secretary, Rev. J. J. Tatum, and the splendid sermons being delivered from the pulpit by Rev. T. A. Searcy, formerly of Bryan, brother of Dr. C. A. Searcy of this city, and now holding a pastorate at Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Has Had Many Conversions.

Since his ordination he has been active and successful in his calling, having served with marked success the following churches: As pastor in Texas, at North Zulch, where he built the present house of worship; at Cross, South Zulch, Piedmont and Bryan. After removing to Iowa, the Baptists and Free Baptists in that section being affiliated, he has served the following Baptist churches: Strawberry Point, 1909-11; Lake City, 1911-14; Perry, 1914-21; Oskaloosa, 1921 and is still serving the church at that place. He also held a place on the state board of the Baptist convention in 1915-1921.

Hundreds have been converted and received into the church under his ministry at different places. The many friends of this Godly man and friends of other days are glad welcoming him and great crowds are

POULTRY DISCUSSED AT MEETING OF BRYAN CHAMBER COMMERCE

Almost the entire hour of regular Tuesday morning meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce was given over to President H. J. Schlafly of the Great Eight Poultry Farm at Carlisle, Illinois. It will be remembered that a carload of standard-bred poultry was shipped from Brazos county to this farm and became the foundation stock of the great poultry institution of today. It was a splendid talk and everyone present thoroughly enjoyed it. It is only to be regretted that thousands of the interested poultry raisers of Brazos county were not present to hear it. The address will be published in full in the Eagle at a later date.

Secretary Eberstadt reported the following new members: Dr. L. O. Wilkerson, O. Martinson, S. P. Railway, G. W. Orms. He also read communications from D. J. Price and W. C. McCormick, general passenger agents of the I.-G. and S. P., respectively, with reference to letter sent them by the secretary upon request of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce. The communications said that the officials would take up the matter of arranging connections at Hearne for trains from Austin bringing passengers to Bryan and College Station and try to work out a satisfactory arrangement.

Those present today were: F. C. Bolton, J. E. Covey, W. H. Cole, Eugene Edge, E. J. Fountain, Judge D. O. Ferguson, Tyler Haswell, F. L. Henderson, J. M. Gordon, Jno. M. Lawrence, T. K. Lawrence, J. Bryan Miller, J. D. Martin, Oak McKenzie, L. L. McInnis, M. L. Parker, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, M. E. Wallace; and Frank Clark, Jr., a visitor.

HERNANDEZ IN PLEA OF GUILTY AND GIVEN FIVE YEARS MURDER CHARGE

(From Friday's Daily)

Judge W. C. Davis being out of town, in Austin, on business on Thursday, district court was recessed for the day and no cases were heard. This morning the case of the State of Texas vs. Julian Hernandez, charged with slaying the infant babe of his daughter some months ago at the family home near Wheelock, came up for trial. Hernandez pleaded guilty and was given a 5-year sentence in prison. Another case, that of incest, against Hernandez, which charges him with having been the father of the slain babe, has not yet been set. Under the law this second case could not be set until the first case had first been disposed of.

Negroes Are Sentenced.

Following the Hernandez sentence, Judge Davis also passed sentence on three negroes, convicted earlier in the week on charges of burglary. John Griffin was given 10 years on a total of seven cases of two years each, making 14 years in all, but the judge permitted four years of the total to run concurrently.

O. D. Johnson, alias Jesse Johnson, was given two years on each of two counts of burglary, four years in all. Webb Shealey was given one term of two years for the burglary of the C. M. Bethany home in this city during the circus day in Br an last summer.

Greetings from Mrs. J. Daniel Sunkel, 507 East 15th Street, Dallas, to the Bryan Eagle brings the message: "We are enjoying our Bryan Eagle more and more each week. It is almost like a visit back there with homefolks and friends."

CAR STOLEN FROM CITY OF NAVASOTA FOUND ON BRYAN TO HEARNE ROAD

Sheriff Jess Conlee found a car that had been abandoned, on the Bryan-Hearne Kings' Trail Highway, Monday morning, just this side of the old Seale place. It answered the description of a car stolen from Navasota on Sunday night. Deputy Sheriff Bailey of Navasota had telephoned to Bryan late Sunday night that a car had been stolen in Navasota and had had plenty of time to get to Bryan. Sheriff Conlee went out on the road for three or four hours but the car did not show up. It evidently had passed through Bryan before the long-distance call was received. Navasota officers have not yet come for the car.

SCOVILLE PARTY ON PROGRAM LUNCHEON OF LIONS CLUB TODAY

Dr. Charles Reign Scoville, who is conducting a union revival campaign at College Station, was the principal speaker at the Lion's Club luncheon today. Stressing the need of a stronger spiritual foundation for the religious structure of the country, the speaker gave an interesting discussion in which he brought out his message with quotations from Rodger Babson. He paid high tribute to Woodrow Wilson and his principles and condemned the policy of trying to make industry prosper at the will of congress instead of the will of God.

Touching on the subject of the crime wave, he stated that it was his belief that it is due to too much education of the head and too little education of the heart and hand. He referred briefly to the great discoveries made by world-famous doctors and instead of hiding their discovery they gave it to the world that humanity might be blessed. That is the spirit the world needs today. He spoke of the necessity of turning from things material to things spiritual and said that the world will be bathed in the blood of the soldiers unless the blood of Jesus Christ reached the hearts of men. He played the man who would blast a character to boost a business. The big clubs, said Dr. Scoville, must get back of the church to put across a program that will save the world from going to its doom.

Two Splendid Solos.

Previous to Dr. Scoville's address Mrs. Scoville sang two solos and an encore which were much appreciated by the members. Mrs. Scoville possesses a wonderful voice and her rendition of "Italy" and "The Old Fashioned Town" were especially well received. At the close of the meeting the members were of the opinion that the party had furnished one of the most enjoyable programs it has been the privilege of the club to hear for some time.

Those present were: Wm. N. Sholl, M. E. Cox, E. V. Spence, S. C. Hoyle, Isaac N. Farris, Arlene Dux Scoville, Chas. Reign Scoville, C. A. Searcy, president; Maurice Searcy, L. Farris, Powell, M. E. Hudson, Irene A. Scoville, Guy E. Curtis, James R. Axtell, F. D. Fuller, R. L. Brown, F. L. Eldred of Kansas City, O. J. Parks, Lamar Jones, J. M. Ferguson, Harry S. Edge, J. Coulter Smith, W. E. Neely, T. A. Munson, J. Bryan Miller, Richard Ratcliffe, Henry Locke, E. J. Hunt, L. L. Stephens, M. F. Vitopli, R. V. Armstrong, J. E. Henderson, Mrs. R. L. Brown and Mrs. M. E. Cox, pianist.

HISTORICAL MUSEUM NETTED ABOUT SIXTY DOLLARS TO SCHOOLS

The historic museum, given under the auspices of the two grade Parent-Teachers' Association, on Friday afternoon, was indeed a delightful affair. The motive in arranging this exhibit was two-fold. From an educational viewpoint it was entirely successful; financially it might indicate that Bryan school patrons prefer light entertainment to food for thought. Each of the two grade associations will add about $30 to its treasury. The East side grades will apply their portion on a phonograph to be used strictly for grade work, and the West side will apply its share on reference books purchased at the beginning of the year.

The exhibit included on table of foreign curios and old linen brought from Europe. Another was occupied with relics of local history, days of the Texas Republic, and the civil war. A third section was devoted to relics of the revolutionary period. Above this exhibit was Washington's picture and a Colonial Flag. A flint-rock rifle, a pitcher from a tea service used in Washington's home, and a piece of jewelry which was a personal gift from Washington were included in this collection. There was a sampler, a hair wreath, silver candle sticks and snuffers, and numerous bits of dainty and elaborate handwork a century or more old to be seen on this table.

The exhibit of old clothing was varied and extremely interesting. Including baby clothes of rare age and beauty, reception gowns and home-spuns antedating the days of sewing machines; and a pair of home-spun flax trousers had its share of notice. The evolution of the Texas Flag was given in lecture form from illustrations by Mrs. Thos. Lundin. Mrs. J. N. Goodwin presided over a huge volume of Harper's Weekly dated 1867 and told the children of events, fashions and customs of that day as they looked at the illustrations made from wood etchings.

The "Toothless Wonder of the 20th Century" and "The Last Evidence of the Dominance of Man" excited no small bit curiosity. These proved to be a dominic hen, and a pair of old suspenders.

Mrs. M. R. Bentley and Mrs. C. A. Searcy, presidents of the West Side and the East Side Grade Associations express their gratitude to all who contributed to the success of this occasion by lending of their treasured possessions; and also to the ladies of the Woman's Club and the Delphian Society who gave of their time to assist in collecting the articles on exhibit and in many other ways contributed to the success of the museum.

NEW WAVERLY TEAM WON FROM BRYAN IN FAST GAME ON FRIDAY

NEW WAVERLY, Mar. 3.—In a fast game Friday between the Bryan high school team and the New Waverly Pals, played in the Sam Houston college gymnasium, at Huntsville for the bi-district championship in basketball, the Pals won by the score of 11 to 6. The guarding on both sides was exceptionally good, which accounted for the low score. During the season New Waverly has played 14 high school games, winning 13 and losing only one. In all of these games, New Waverly scored 81 points. The Pals eliminated the Huntsville Hornets in a three-game series for the championship of Walker county.

THE KIND WE LIKE

Lubbock must be a mighty damp, noisy place. According to the Avalanche there's a "crying need" for a new hotel, new residences, more street paving, more shade trees, and more rooming houses. Just think of all that bunch crying at the same time.—Mineral Wells Index.

That is the kind of "sob sisters" needed in every town. And the of teder they cry and the longer and more in unison, the greater results they will get. The value of a damp eye can't be estimated. It will put things over when nothing else will. Every citizen in every town should join the "crying need" crowd.—Bryan Eagle.

The editor of the Eagle knows what she is talking about. Being a woman, she knows the value of "crying" for what she wants, therefore the argument, as far as we are concerned, is closed.—Mineral Wells Index.

WHY NEWSPAPERS ERR

The Rockdale Reporter thus enumerates "some reasons why newspapers make mistakes": (1) They depend 80 per cent of the time on the other fellow. (2) No matter how carefully written a story is, there is always at least 50 different interpretations that can be given to the angle if one desires to do this. (3) The newspaper man as a general rule is constantly working under high pressure. He has the same amount of time to write a column story as one paragraph. Man is not mechanically perfect. (4) Although a clear mind is a prerequisite he is human and sometimes lets his mind get cloudy. (5) In an effort to be fair he sometimes offends both parties. That is the price he pays. (6) The American language is a cross-word puzzle in itself. It implies too much. (7) Just like the reporter writing his story believes he has made himself clear, the man in giving his story makes the wrong impression and thus leaves the wrong impression with the man who is supposed to interpret him." And there are others, too numerous to mention.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know: If you will take a geographically correct map of Texas and stick a pin through the center and put it over Nashville, Tennessee, the eastern end of Texas will reach to Raleigh, North Carolina; the western to Little Rock, Arkansas; the northern end to Chicago, Illinois; and the southern the Gulf of Mexico. It is true Texas isn't square and all the sections reached by these projecting points would not be as covered with a solid block, yet you have a good illustration of the immensity of the State's area.

Did you know: The total area of Texas is 265,896 square miles, of which the land area comprises 262,398 square miles and the water 3,498 square miles.

Did you know: The total farm land area of Texas amounts to over 178,000 square miles.

Did you know: That Texas is 53,000 square miles larger than France, 83,000 square miles larger than Germany, and 144,000 square miles larger than the United Kingdom. Texas' farm area is nearly equal to the total area of Germany.

With this knowledge who would venture a forecast of what the future holds for Texas. While Texas is largest in area it also has been richly endowed by nature with wonderful resources of soil, climate and minerals. Its development is in the hands of its citizens and each and every one of them should make a personal study of their state so as to be able to meet their responsibility.

SOME GOOD ADVICE

Pay your debts as soon as you get your money in your pocket. Do without what you don't need. Speak your mind when necessary. Hold your tongue when prudent. Speak to a friend in a steady coat. If you can't lend a man money, tell him why. If you don't want to, do the same. Cut acquaintances who lack principle. Bear with infirmities, but not with vices. Respect honesty, despise duplicity. Wear your old clothes till you can pay for new ones. Aim at comfort and propriety, not fashion. Acknowledge your ignorance, and don't pretend knowledge you haven't got. Entertain your friends but never beyond your means. Then you will always have money to pay your bills.—Anonymous.

Recently we heard a visiting man from England say the Texas girls looked like Indian squaws and wondered why they paint up so. We have never been able to fathom why a naturally beautiful young girl will try to disguise herself with a coat of enamel and paint. The ugly freckled face girl and the old, wrinkled faced woman might have a real reason for being unnatural, but a pretty fresh, young and youthful maiden, never!

We take it that the head coach in athletics at A. and M. College is a reliable man. At least we judge so by his name, which is Bible.—Texas Mesquite.

PLANT A TREE TODAY

Every Bryan home owner should remember this is tree planting time and the opportune moment to plant a tree, thus adding another touch of modern civic beauty to our town. Nothing so adds to the beauty of a town like systematic planting of trees and besides, they are one of the greatest assets any city can have. They furnish beauty, pleasure and comfort with their shade for the wayfarer whether he be the visitor or home resident and add attractiveness that nothing can take their place.

"Trees are living things," says W. P. Maloney in an article which appeared recently in the Dallas News. "They are friendly. To know trees well is to love them. They are among the most lovable things on earth. They do so much good, help us in so many essential things of every day life that they are really among the most indispensable natural objects on the face of the earth. They yield us luscious fruits and wholesome nuts—their lives are sacrificed to supply material for our homes and our furniture. The forest is nature's playground. Trees are the friends protectors of all wild life and sanctuaries for the birds, where they sing their sweetest songs, mate and nest and rear their young."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

(Taken from the files of the Bryan Daily Eagle, March 3, 1900, twenty-five years ago):

Local News Notes.
By previous appointment, a strong committee from Bryan, composed of representative business men and citizens, met Superintendent Leroy Price and Judge Steadman of the I. and G. N. railway of Calvert yesterday afternoon and the result of the meeting was that the C. W. & B. V. railway will positively be extended to Bryan if the people of this city will secure the right-of-way and depot grounds and guarantee a liberal amount of patronage, all things being equal. The people of Bryan should respond to this proposition without hesitation. No town in Texas, perhaps, has ever had such a liberal proposition. No bonus is asked—nothing but the simple proposition above set forth. Nearly all the members of the large committee signed the agreement yesterday. The contract must be signed and forwarded to Palestine by Sunday morning, and if the proposition is accepted by the people of this city, the engineers will be placed in the field by Monday or Tuesday. Now is the time to act—now is the golden opportunity for Bryan. Let no man refuse to do his part. The road from Calvert to Lewis Switch was completed in about thirty days. The extension to Bryan will require more time but will be pushed with equal rapidity when the contract is signed. The citizens of Bryan, many of them, have already practically agreed to the terms proposed and about $5,000 has been subscribed toward the fund for depot grounds and right-of-way. The present movement had its active beginning in a meeting held here in February when L. W. McInnis, R. S. Webb, D. C. Zuber, W. E. Saunders, Henry Rohde, and J. W. English were appointed a committee to solicit donations. They went to work with the result above indicated. At that time an executive committee was also appointed, composed of J. L. Fountain, Y. N. Cole, M. Parker, J. W. Howell, G. M. Brandon, S. B. Buchanan, John Dais, J. W. Coulter, J. A. Meyers and L. L. Innis.

Whenever the farmer in the South shall eat bread from his own fields and meat from his own pastures, and, disturbed by no creditor and enslaved by no debt, shall sit amidst his teeming gardens and orchards and vineyards and dairies and barnyards, pitching his crops in his own wisdom, and growing them in independence, making cotton his clean surplus, and selling it in his own time, and in his chosen market—and not at his master's bidding—getting his pay in cash and not in a receipted mortgage that discharges his debt, but doesn't restore his freedom—then shall be the breaking of the fullness of our day.—Henry W. Grady.

Holidays in limited numbers are all right but this practice of closing up and stopping business ever so often is all wrong. More than half the people that take these holidays don't observe them from any sense of patriotic duty but simply to get off from work. We contend the man who works and plants a tree on George Washington's birthday is certainly more patriotic than the man who merely observed it as a holiday.

Money is a silent talker but a most effective one and to many has a sound that is more convincing than words.

THREE ITALIANS ARE ARRESTED ON CHARGE STEALING SOME HOGS

Lee and Joe Reina and Sam Mondella, Italians of the community on Sandy Point road, about five miles southeast of Bryan, were arrested Saturday by Sheriff Jess Conlee on a charge of having stolen some pigs from farmers of the same section. Their examining trial was scheduled for this afternoon. Lee and Joe Reina are said to be brothers and Mondella is a cousin. The Reinas and Mondella live on adjoining farms.

Constable J. D. Conlee, Sr., said that the man had confessed to the stealing. The Reina boys face four cases and Mondella three. W. H. Rawls lost one hog; Tom Fingers, one; Joe Neal, one, and Womack Smith, one. Following their arrest the Italians remained in jail over Sunday and were released on bonds of $500 each, said Constable Conlee.

BRYAN PARTY VISITED A GREAT COMMUNITY MEETING HELD CROSS

Secretary Sam E. Eberstadt of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce and County Agent C. L. Beason report a splendid meeting at Cross on last Friday night, February 27. Notwithstanding the threatening weather there was a full house to enjoy the program of songs, recitations, talks, etc. Flynn McDuffey, formerly of Brazos county resident, presided at the meeting, perhaps the most interesting part of which were talks by Jim Kurten and Britten Henderson of the Kurten club, Jim Kurten speaking in the main of the benefits of club work to both boys and girls and urging the boys and girls of the Cross community to be a hundred per cent in club work. Britten Henderson gave a very interesting account of his trip to Chicago, calling attention to the wonderful recognition given the club members on every occasion and describing the many elaborate banquets given in honor of the 3,000 club delegates in such a way as to kindle the ambition of every boy present to put forth his best efforts in an endeavor to win a trip similar to those he and Jim Kurten had enjoyed as a result of club activities.

Repaid for Service.
R. W. Persons, assistant state agent in charge of boys' club work for the extension service, stated that for two weeks he had been telling to hundreds of boys and girls in the eastern part of the State the story of the achievements of Jim Kurten and Britten Henderson. Mr. Persons stated that he and County Agent I. W. Ross had attended 16 club meetings in Grimes county during the past 56 hours, and that the total attendance was 1,200. In calling attention to the splendid records made in Brazos county, he stated that such had been made possible through the hearty co-operation of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce and the untiring service rendered by the Secretary Sam E. Eberstadt. In reply to the complimentary remarks paid him, Mr. Eberstadt stated he got consolation in contributing volunteer service outside of his commercial organization in thinking that, like the old man mentioned in the poem, "The Builder," might be helping to build a bridge for some youth who would pass that way. Mr. Eberstadt urged the Cross people to be loyal to their local town and home community, but assured them that a welcome would always be extended them by the business men of Bryan, "The Queen City of South Central Texas."

Beason Gets Applause.
County Agent C. L. Beason was introduced by Mr. Persons. He prefaced his talk by teaching a number of songs applicable or appropriate to the occasion, which all present sang with much enthusiasm. He began his talk by telling a number of humorous stories in his own inimitable fashion. Community work in Brazos county, an explanation of the organization and function, as well as history of this work in the different sections of Brazos, boys' and girls' club work and its accomplishments, were all included in Mr. Beason's talk, though he had to pause frequently because of spontaneous applause from the 200 or more assembled for the meeting. In closing, the county agent paid a tribute to the hearty, loyal, consistent and constant co-operation of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce through its secretary, Sam E. Eberstadt.

FINE PROGRAM GIVEN COUNTY FEDERATION WOMEN'S CLUB MEET

The County Federation of Women's Club of Brazos County met in regular monthly session at Carnegie Library auditorium, Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. P. S. Mangum, president, in the chair, and Miss Essie Shealey, secretary, at her desk. Twenty-six women were present, and a splendid spirit of interest and co-operation was manifested. Every meeting of this federation is better than the one before, and the members are receiving much of pleasure and profit from the organization.

An unusual treat was given the members at the Saturday meeting here as receiving much of pleasure and profit from the organization. A. and M. College, gave a talk on "Women's Organizations in Texas," emphasizing and commending the work being accomplished by the home demonstration clubs. Mrs. Will Henry of the Edge club read a fine paper on "The Necessity of Correct Diet for Health." The report of Mrs. W. C. Hill of Edge, which gave an idea of what Mrs. Hill has accomplished in the canning of meats during the past year, was then given. Figures showed that Mrs. Hill had canned for others beside herself, so expert is she in this important art of cookery. Just how many cans she had put up was not given, but in the report of the sale of the cans, which amounted to $500, an estimate of the number can be arrived at. Mrs. Hill was complimented upon her splendid report. "The Care of Baby Chicks" was the subject of a fine talk by Mrs. J. L. Broach of Tabor. Mrs. George Jones of Reliance sang a beautiful little song, "Keep on Smiling," and Miss Ruth Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Martin of Bryan, gave an instrumental number.

Miss Laura Belle Roten, home demonstration agent of Brazos county, led a round table discussion on the subject of the encampment to be held for District No. 2, which includes Brazos county, at Livingston, Texas, during July.

Six communities were represented at the Saturday meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Brazos County, as follows: Edge, Tabor, Reliance, Steele's Store, College, and Bryan.

Free Baptist Revival a Success

For the past week there has been a most successful revival conducted at the Free Baptist church in this city. Many things have contributed to the remarkable success, the enthusiasm and co-operation of the church membership and the friends of the denomination; the assistance rendered by the pastor Rev. C. B. Thompson and the state secretary, Rev. J. J. Tatum, and the splendid sermons being delivered from the pulpit by Rev. T. A. Searcy, formerly of Bryan, brother of Dr. C. A. Searcy of this city, and now holding a pastorate at Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Rev. T. A. Searcy was born in Madison county, moving to Bryan in 1894, making his home in this section until 1909 when he went to the State of Iowa where he has resided since that time. He was converted in August, 1893, and joined the Plainview Free Baptist church in Madison county. He was one of the charter members of the Free Baptist church of Bryan when it was organized in 1894. He was ordained to preach the gospel in 1905 by his association at Kurten.

Has Had Many Conversions.

Since his ordination he has been active and successful in his calling, having served with marked success the following churches: As pastor in Texas, at North Zulch, where he built the present house of worship; at Cross, South Zulch, Piedmont and Bryan. After removing to Iowa, the Baptists and Free Baptists in that section being affiliated, he has served the following Baptist churches: Strawberry Point, 1909-11; Lake City, 1911-14; Perry, 1914-21; Oskaloosa, 1921 and is still serving the church at that place. He also held a place on the state board of the Baptist convention in 1915-1921.

Hundreds have been converted and received into the church under his ministry at different places. The many friends of this Godly man and friends of other days are gladly welcoming him and great crowds are listening with deep interest to his most interesting and helpful messages. While he denounces sin and worldliness, making no compromise with any disobedience, whatever, there is an earnestness manifest for the salvation of the lost, that impresses one with the deep Christian love and sincerity for his fellowman.

CAR STOLEN FROM CITY OF NAVASOTA FOUND ON BRYAN TO HEARNE ROAD

Sheriff Jess Conlee found a car that had been abandoned, on the Bryan-Hearne Kings' Trail Highway, Monday morning, just this side of the old Seale place. It answered the description of a car stolen from Navasota on Sunday night. Deputy Sheriff Bailey of Navasota had telephoned to Bryan late Sunday night that a car had been stolen in Navasota and had had plenty of time to get to Bryan. Sheriff Conlee went out on the road for three or four hours but the car did not show up. It evidently had passed through Bryan before the long-distance call was received. Navasota officers have not yet come for the car.

SCOVILLE PARTY ON PROGRAM LUNCHEON OF LIONS CLUB TODAY

Dr. Charles Reign Scoville, who is conducting a union revival campaign at College Station, was the principal speaker at the Lion's Club luncheon today. Stressing the need of a stronger spiritual foundation for the religious structure of the country, the speaker gave an interesting discussion in which he brought out his message with quotations from Rodger Babson. He paid high tribute to Woodrow Wilson and his principles and condemned the policy of trying to make industry prosper at the will of congress instead of the will of God.

Touching on the subject of the crime wave, he stated that it was his belief that it is due to too much education of the head and too little education of the heart and hand. He referred briefly to the great discoveries made by world-famous doctors and instead of hiding their discovery they gave it to the world that humanity might be blessed. That is the spirit the world needs today. He spoke of the necessity of turning from things material to things spiritual and said that the world will be bathed in the blood of the soldiers unless the blood of Jesus Christ reached the hearts of men. He charged the man who would blast a character to boost a business. The big clubs, said Dr. Scoville, must get back of the church to put across a program that will save the world from going to its doom.

HERNANDEZ IN PLEA OF GUILTY AND GIVEN FIVE YEARS MURDER CHARGE

(From Friday's Daily)
Judge W. C. Davis being out of town, in Austin, on business on Thursday, district court was recessed for the day and no cases were heard. This morning the case of the State of Texas vs. Julian Hernandez, charged with slaying the infant babe of his daughter some months ago at the family home near Wheelock, came up for trial. Hernandez pleaded guilty and was given a 5-year sentence in prison. Another case, that of incest, against Hernandez, which charges him with having been the father of the slain babe, has not yet been set. Under the law this second case could not be set until the first case had first been disposed of.

Negroes Are Sentenced.
Following the Hernandez sentence, Judge Davis also passed sentence on three negroes, convicted earlier in the week on charges of burglary. John Griffin was given 10 years on a total of seven cases of two years each, making 14 years in all, but the judge permitted four years of the total to run concurrently.

O. D. Johnson, alias Jesse Johnson, was given two years on each of two counts of burglary, four years in all. Webb Shealey was given one term of two years for the burglary of the C. M. Bethany home in this city during the circus day in Br an last summer.

Greetings from Mrs. J. Daniel Sunkel, 507 East 15th Street, Dallas, to the Bryan Eagle brings the message: "We are enjoying our Bryan Eagle more and more each week. It is almost like a visit back there with homefolks and friends."

HISTORICAL MUSEUM NETTED ABOUT SIXTY DOLLARS TO SCHOOLS

The historic museum, given under the auspices of the two grade Parent-Teachers' Association, on Friday afternoon, was indeed a delightful affair. The motive in arranging this exhibit was two-fold. From an educational viewpoint it was entirely successful; financially it might indicate that Bryan school patrons prefer light entertainment to food for thought. Each of the two grade associations will add about $30 to its treasury. The East side grades will apply their portion on a phonograph to be used strictly for grade work, and the West side will apply its share on reference books purchased at the beginning of the year.

The exhibit included on table of foreign curios and old linen brought from Europe. Another was occupied with relics of local history, days of the Texas Republic, and the civil war. A third section was devoted to relics of the revolutionary period. Above this exhibit was Washington's picture and a Colonial Flag. A flint-rock rifle, a pitcher from a tea service used in Washington's home, and a piece of jewelry which was a personal gift from Washington were included in this collection. There was a sampler, a hair wreath, silver candle sticks and snuffers, and numerous bits of dainty and elaborate handwork a century or more old to be seen on this table.

The exhibit of old clothing was varied and extremely interesting. Including baby clothes of rare age and beauty, reception gowns and home-spuns antedating the days of sewing machines; and a pair of home-spun flax trousers had its share of notice. The evolution of the Texas Flag was given in lecture form from illustrations by Mrs. Thos. Lundin. Mrs. J. N. Goodwin presided over a huge volume of Harper's Weekly dated 1867 and told the children of events, fashions and customs of that day as they looked at the illustrations made from wood etchings.

The "Toothless Wonder of the 20th Century" and "The Last Evidence of the Dominance of Man" excited no small bit curiosity. These proved to be a dominion hen, and a pair of old suspenders.

Mrs. M. R. Bentley and Mrs. C. A. Searcy, presidents of the West Side and the East Side Grade Associations express their gratitude to all who contributed to the success of this occasion by lending of their treasured possessions; and also to the ladies of the Woman's Club and the Delphian Society who gave of their time to assist in collecting the articles on exhibit and in many other ways contributed to the success of the museum.

NEW WAVERLY TEAM WON FROM BRYAN IN FAST GAME ON FRIDAY

NEW WAVERLY, Mar. 3.—In a fast game Friday between the Brynau high school team and the New Waverly Pals, played in the Sam Houston college gymnasium, at Huntsville for the bi-district championship in basketball, the Pals won by the score of 11 to 6. The guarding on both sides was exceptionally good, which accounted for the low score. During the season New Waverly has played 14 high school games, winning 13 and losing only one. In all of these games, New Waverly scored 91 points. The Pals eliminated the Huntsville Hornets in a three-game series for the championship of Walker county.

BRYAN FOLKS TAKE PART PROGRAM IN MEMORY WASHINGTON AT BEDIAS

More than seven hundred Masons, Eastern Stars, their families and friends gathered in the large auditorium of the new $50,000 high school building at Bedias Saturday night and were entertained by an excellent program celebrating the birthday of Washington.

The program was sponsored by the A. F. & A. M. Lodge No. 651 of Bedias, and was arranged by Worshipful Master K. K. Skelton and his wife, Mrs. Skelton, an officer in the Eastern Star, while they were assisted by J. R. McAdams, secretary of the Masonic Lodge of Bedias and other members of the Masonic order, also members of the Eastern Star. The sons and daughters of the Masons contributed largely to the program by songs, recitations, readings, etc., showing what Masonry stands for, while Judge Menefee of Madisonville spoke of "What Masonry is Doing in Texas."

A number of the Rainbow girls of Bryan motored over to Bedias Saturday afternoon and took part in the program after which they were to attend a week-end party at the home of Mrs. Bev. Harrison.

Miss Wava Martin told something of what the Rainbow Girls stand for and made quite an interesting talk while Miss Alta Williams rendered a piano solo, and Misses Leila Law Davis and Ida Belle Higgs sent a daisy, county and state by support.

Talk On Masonry. S. C. Hoyle, editor of Extension Service publications of the A. and M. College, was the principal speaker of the evening and talked on the subject, "What Masonry Stands For." He said that Masonry was a beautiful system of morals, veiled in allegory and illustrated by symbols. That it did not presume to take the place of the church and did not ask except to ascertain that he believed in God. He emphasized the fact that a belief in the Fatherhood of God was necessary which presupposed the Brotherhood of man and a glorious immortality. These are the three fundamentals of Masonry. He told of the growth of speculative Masonry at a time when churches were intolerant which no doubt played an important part in the fact that the various creeds and theologies of the different churches are kept out of the Masonic order.

He emphasized the fact that the Brotherhood is vital to the brotherhood of man and the importance of each member so living that the world may read the secrets of Masonry in his daily life. Masonry, he said, deals with the individual and encourages the building of a moral character by daily acts which will result in good citizenship and an active participation in building up the home, supporting educational institutions, upholding the law and contributing to the uplift of humanity. He pointed out that Masons are not to unite as a body and take part in politics, but that as individuals they should serve on the jury, obey the law, strive to put good men in office and do all in their power to hand down to posterity a free government, improved, founded on the democracy bought by the blood of our forefathers in the Revolution. In other words, his entire address centered around the building of character which would make a man a good husband, father, citizen or church member, who never permitted his passions to run riot, but kept his passions under subjection and exemplified the worthy principles of manhood and moral character which made him tolerant of others yet at the same time illustrating a character founded upon the manhood of the brother and a spirit of charity and brotherly love which would create in the minds of those with whom he contacted a deep respect and admiration for the principles of morality and brotherly love illustrated by his daily walk. Also for his earnest activity in building character, home and state, according to the highest specifications known to man, so that those who knew him might truthfully say, "There goes a real man."

Program As Given. Visitors came from Madisonville, Bryan, Iola, Cross and the surrounding sections and everyone pronounced the program a complete success and congratulated Mr. Skelton on the expeditionary manner in which he conducted the ceremonies and upon the excellence of the program which had been prepared. It is doubtful if a better program of this nature has ever been arranged, planned and executed so successfully in this section, notwithstanding that larger lodges with better facilities have held similar programs.

The program as rendered follows: Invocation, Rev. W. A. McKee; announcement of the purpose of the meeting; song, "America," vocal solo, Miss Opal Pyle; "Building," Mrs. Griffith; address, "What Freemasonry is Doing in Texas," Judge Menefee of Madisonville; "The Proposal," Mrs. Neita Davis; "The Progress," Miss Coquese Skelton; "On Being Made a Mason," Cuyler Thompson; "From Darkness to Light," Miss Melba McKee; "What I Owe to Masons of Texas," Miss Ruby Pyle; trio, by David Davis, Olan Davis and Floyd Hall; "The Three," Miss Maurine Barnes; "Why Women Cannot Become Masons," Herbert Adams; "School Epidemics," Miss Ethel Davis; "The Five Points of Fellowship," Miss Ruby Hargrove; "Personal Application," Jim Harrison; duet, Misses Ethel Davis and Helen Neely; "Try the Square," Warren Adams; "What Masonry Stands For," S. C. Hoyle of Bryan; duet, Misses Leila Law Davis and Ida Belle Higgs of Bryan; "What the Rainbow Girls Stand For," Miss Wava Martin of Bryan; benediction, Miss Neita Marie Hall.

Those who attended from Bryan were: Misses Wava Martin, Alta Williams, Leila Law Davis, Dorothy Graham and Ida Belle Higgs, and S. C. Hoyle.

REV. T. A. SEARCY IN A VISIT NEGRO SCHOOL--PRAISES CONDITIONS

Upon the invitation of Principal E. A. Kemp, Rev. T. A. Searcy visited the colored school Thursday morning at nine o'clock. After a cheery song by the pupils, Rev. Searcy read for the morning lesson the first three verses of the 13th chapter of 1st Cor. With this Scripture as a basis he brought a real message of hope and of higher love. Among other things, he reminded the children of his interest in our school twenty years ago; of how he had kept them in mind while away from Bryan; how he had watched the progress of the school, and assured us all that all the good we our white people of the city were our best friends and desired that the children live pure lives, trust in God and thereby become forceful instruments in making of the negro race a mighty factor in the building of this world into the kind of place that our Heavenly Father would have it be. We want Rev. Searcy to come again.

Other visitors this week complimented the teachers and pupils for the clean halls, orderly kept rooms, oiled floors, freshly polished heaters, our many pieces of play-ground apparatus, and the general spirit of fellowship existing between the teacher and pupil, and ventured the query: "How do you do it?" There's the reason.—REPORTED.

BRYAN HIGH SCHOOL WORKING IN LITERARY EVENTS FOR BIG MEET

While Coach G. C. Cox is busy in the effort to win the state high school interscholastic League basketball championship, or to push some other team to desperate efforts to win, Miss Gladys Regal, instructor in English and elocution of the Bryan High school, is putting in some hard work in the literary events in this race, preparatory to the county meet which will be held at the A. and M. College the latter part of March.

On Thursday afternoon there were three declamation contests held at the school house, the results of which determined those who will represent the school in the events in which they are entered, in the county meet. The declamation contests are divided first into two classes, the seniors, or all students over 14 years of age; the juniors, all students who are fourteen years of age or under. The second division is the girls and boys class, making four divisions in all.

The senior girls, contest was held first. There were five entered in this group: Edna Earl Cummings, Doi-ro Vance, Maude Jones, Olivia Sanders and Mary Jane Reynolds. First place went to Miss Cummings whose declamation was "The Fleet Goes By."

The junior boys contest had but two entries, Coulter Hoppess and Robert Wilcox. The former won with the declamation familiarly known over this country, "A Message to Garcia." The junior girls contest, in which four were entered, Jane Cavitt, Mary Martha Black, Anna Laura Smith and Helen Minkert, resulted in the first three named taking first place. A second or elimination contest for first place will be held the first of next week, according to Miss Regal, who furnished the above information. There were no entries in the declamation contest for junior boys. The judges were Rev. Wm. N. Skoll, Rev. H. H. McCain and Mrs. E. B. Reynolds.

The high school debate team has been organized as follows: boys, William Minkert and James Pipkin; girls, Nina Ferguson and Vera Ramsey. This team will leave on Monday afternoon about two or three o'clock for a little picnic trip while en route to Hearne where a practice debate will be held on Monday night, March 2, with the teams of the high school there. This debate work is preparatory to the county meet and later meets in the State Interscholastic League, with visions of State honors to be won.

BRYAN FOLKS TAKE PART PROGRAM IN MEMORY WASHINGTON AT BEDIAS

More than seven hundred Masons, Eastern Stars, their families and friends gathered in the large auditorium of the new $50,000 high school building at Bedias Saturday night and were entertained by an excellent program celebrating the birthday of Washington.

The program was sponsored by the A. F. & A. M. Lodge No. 651 of Bedias, and was arranged by Worshipful Master K. K. Skelton and his wife, Mrs. Skelton, an officer in the Eastern Star, while they were ably assisted by J. R. McAdams, secretary of the Masonic Lodge of Bedias and other members of the Masonic order, also members of the Eastern Star. The sons and daughters of the Masons contributed largely to the program by songs, recitations, readings, etc., showing what Masonry stands for, while Judge Menefee of Madisonville spoke of "What Masonry is Doing in Texas."

A number of the Rainbow girls of Bryan motored over to Bedias Saturday afternoon and took part in the program after which they were to attend a week-end house party at the home of Mrs. Rev. Harrison.

Miss Wava Martin told something of what the Rainbow Girls stand for and made quite an interesting talk while Miss Alta Williams rendered a piano solo, and Misses Leila Law Davis and Ida Belle Higgs sent a dutymunity, county and state by support.

Talk On Masonry.

S. C. Hoyle, editor of Extension Service publications of the A. and M. College, was the principal speaker of the evening and talked on the subject, "What Masonry Stands For." He said that Masonry was a beautiful system of morals, veiled in allegory and illustrated by symbols. That it did not presume to take the place of the church and did not ask about a man's theology and creed except to ascertain that he believed in God. He emphasized the fact that a belief in the Fatherhood of God was necessary which presupposed the Brotherhood of man and a glorious immortality. These are the three fundamentals of Masonry. He told of the growth of speculative Masonry at a time when churches were intolerant which no doubt played an important part in the fact that the various creeds and theologies of the different churches are kept out of the Masonic order. He emphasized the fact that the Brotherhood of the Brother is vital to the brotherhood of man and the importance of each member so living that the world may read the secrets of Masonry in his daily life. Masonry, he said, deals with the individual and encourages the building of a moral character by daily acts which will result in good citizenship and an active participation in building up the home, supporting educational institutions, upholding the law and contributing to the uplift of humanity. He pointed out that Masons are not to unite as a body and take part in politics, but that as individuals they should serve on the jury, obey the law, strive to put good men in office and do all in their power to hand down to posterity a free government, improved, but founded on the democracy bought by the blood of our forefathers in the Revolution. In other words, his entire address centered around the building of character which would make a man a good husband, father, citizen or church member, who never permitted his passions to run riot, but kept his passions under subjection and exemplified the worthy principles of manhood and moral character which made him tolerant of others yet at the same time illustrating a character founded upon the manhood of the brother and a spirit of charity and brotherly love which would create in the minds of those with whom he contacted a deep respect and admiration for the principles of morality and brotherly love illustrated by his daily walk. Also for his earnest activity in building character, home and state, according to the highest specifications known to man, so that those who knew him might truthfully say, "There goes a real man."

Program As Given.

Visitors came from Madisonville, Bryan, Iola, Cross and the surrounding sections and everyone pronounced the program a complete success and congratulated Mr. Skelton on the expeditious manner in which he conducted the ceremonies and upon the excellence of the program which had been prepared. It is doubtful if a better program of this nature has ever been arranged, planned and executed so successfully in this section, notwithstanding that larger lodges with better facilities have held similar programs.

The program as rendered follows: Invocation, Rev. W. A. McKee; announcement of the purpose of the meeting; song, "America," vocal solo, Miss Opal Pyle; "Building," Mrs. Griffith; address, "What Freemasonry is Doing in Texas," Judge Menefee of Madisonville; "A Man and a Mason," Mrs. Neita Davis; "The Progress of Masonry," Miss Ruby Hargrove; "Personal Application," Jim Harrison; duet, Misses Ethel Davis and Helen Neely; "Try the Square," Warren Adams; "What Masonry Stands For," S. C. Hoyle of Bryan; duet, Misses Leila Law Davis and Ida Belle Higgs of Bryan; "What the Rainbow Girls Stand For," Miss Wava Martin of Bryan; benediction, Miss Neita Marie Hall.

Those who attended from Bryan were: Misses Wava Martin, Alta Williams, Leila Law Davis, Dorothy Graham and Ida Belle Higgs, and S. C. Hoyle.

REV. T. A. SEARCY IN A VISIT NEGRO SCHOOL--PRAISES CONDITIONS

Upon the invitation of Principal E. A. Kemp, Rev. T. A. Searcy visited the colored school Thursday morning at nine o'clock. After a cheery song by the pupils, Rev. Searcy read for the morning lesson, the first three verses of the 13th chapter of 1st Cor. With this Scripture as a basis he brought a real message of hope and of higher love. Among other things, he reminded the children of his interest in our school twenty years ago; of how he had kept them in mind while away from Bryan; how he had watched the progress of the school, and assured us all that all the good Christian white people of the city were our true friends and desired that the children live pure lives, trust in God and thereby become forceful instruments in making of the negro race a mighty factor in the building of this world into the kind of place that our Heavenly Father would have it be. We want Rev. Searcy to come again.

Other visitors this week complimented the teachers and pupils for the clean halls, orderly kept rooms, oiled floors, freshly polished heaters, our many pieces of play-ground apparatus, and the general spirit of fellowship existing between the teacher and pupil, and ventured the query: "How do you do it?" There's the reason.—REPORTED.

Coffee—The Cup of Joy and Cheerfulness

ADMIRATION, a cup of it banishes doubt or distress.

In early Grecian and Roman writings, no mention is made of either the coffee plant or the beverage made from the berries. Pierre Selli Valle, (Born 1586), however maintains that the nepenthe, which Homer says Helen brought with her out of Egypt, and which she employed as succorance from sorrow, was nothing else but coffee mixed with wine.

"She mingled with the wine, the wondrous juice of a plant which banishes sadness and grief from the heart and brings with it forgetfulness of every woe."—Homer.

BROTHER OF CHARLES F. HILLIER DIED SUNDAY--SERVICES AT FRANKLIN

George Hillier, aged 53 years, 2 months and 6 days, died suddenly Sunday morning at 8:20 o'clock at Navesota. Apoplexy was given as the cause of death. Deceased was born at Basingstoke, England, December 23, 1871, and came across to this country with his parents when but a small child, the only child in the family at that time. He came to Texas in 1883 and in 1895 began work for the I. G. N. as bridge foreman of B. & B. No. 1, with headquarters at Mart, Texas. He has been with the I. G. N. since that time, nearly 30 years.

Deceased is survived by his mother, Mrs. M. Hillier of Franklin; two sisters, Mrs. C. C. Langford of Franklin and Mrs. T. J. Wolfe of Waco; three brothers, Tom Hillier of Franklin, J. M. Hillier of Monroe, La., and Charles F. Hillier of Bryan; and four nieces and four nephews. Deceased had never been married.

Funeral services will be held from the residence of Mrs. C. C. Langford in Franklin on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Reverend J. W. Stephen and W. H. Hall of that city. Interment will be in the family burying ground at Franklin with arrangements in charge of the McCulloch-Gordon Company and Undertaker Tom Wright of Temple.

ALL CASES SET FOR TODAY IN DISTRICT COURT BEEN CONTINUED UNTIL MONDAY

Three cases had been set on the criminal docket for today: Jeanie Cramer, charged with unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor; Ben Strain, unlawful transportation of intoxicating liquor, and a similar charge against Johnny Phillips, all negroes. Since Cramer was ill and medical evidence given the court to that effect, and since the cases are contingent, or hinge, one upon the other, the three cases were continued by the court until next Monday.

Coolidge-

rated stand at the east entrance of the Capitol just after he had taken his second oath of office as President of the United States.

Dividing his attention almost equally between affairs at home and problems abroad, and between things accomplished and achievements hoped for, Mr. Coolidge spoke with assurance as to the future, declaring that because of action already taken, an era of prosperity lay ahead and a firmer courage and a higher hope inspired the heart of all humanity.

Reduced Taxation.
"We have been, and propose to be, more and more American," he declared. "If we have any heritage, it has been that. If we have any destiny, we have found it in that direction." Accord with this purpose, he asserted, demands the conduct of government along certain definite lines. These lines in the field of domestic affairs point, first, to the exercise of greater economy in government, and second, to reduction of taxation, he continued. The recent election he said, had demonstrated that "the policy that stands out with the greatest clearness is that of economy in public expenditure with reduction and reform of taxation."

"I favor the policy of economy, not because I wish to save money, but because I wish to save people," he continued. "The men and women of this country who toil are the ones who bear the cost of government. Every dollar that we carelessly waste means that their life will be so much the more meager. Every dollar that we prudently save means that their life will be so much more abundant."

Peaceful Intention.
The practice of such economy, he declared, has brought the time when there can be further tax reduction and "when, unless we wish to hamper the people in their right to earn a living, we must have tax reform." He declared his opposition to extremely high tax rates because "they produce little or no revenue, because they are bad for the country, and finally, because they are wrong. The verdict of the country has been given on this question," he added. "That verdict stands. We shall do well to heed it."

Prefacing his discussion of America's relation to the world with the declaration that "our country represents nothing but peaceful intentions toward all the earth," Mr. Coolidge set forth ways and means of manifesting that spirit while at the same time maintaining "such a military force as comports with the dignity and security of a great people."

Common Honesty.
He reiterated his advocacy of American adherence to the Permanent Court of International Justice, declared the America having taken the lead in the movement for limitation of armaments. "That lead America must continue to hold," he favored continuance of the policy of participation in world conferences "whenever condition are such that there is even a promise that practical and favorable results might be secured," bespoke continuance of aid to mitigate human suffering and assist in the rehabilitation of distressed nations, and expressed sympathy with the movement to clarify international law and to bring about the outlawing of aggressive war.

"We have made a great contribution to the settlement of contentions and differences in both Europe and Asia," he said in concluding his discussion of foreign affairs. "But there is a very definite point beyond which we can not go. We can only help those who help themselves. Mindful of these limitations, the one great duty that stands out requires us to use our enormous powers to trim the balance of the world."

Only once in his address did Mr. Coolidge refer to the election which today brought him to the Presidency for a term in his own right, and that was after he had declared strongly in favor of strict party responsibility adding that "common honesty and good faith with the people who support a party at the polls require that party, when it enters office to assume the control of that portion of the government to which it has been elected."

Merit God's Power.
"This administration has come into power with a very clear and definite mandate from the people," he said. "The people declared that they wanted their rights to have not a political but a judicial determination, and their independence and freedom continued and supported by having the ownership and control of their property, not in the government, but in their hands."

Pursuing further his discussion of domestic affairs, he declared that "those who want their rights respected under the constitution and the law ought to set the example themselves of observing the constitution and the law," and that "we cannot permit any inquisition either within or without the law or apply any religious test to the holding of office."

"America," he concluded, "seeks no earthly empire built on blood and force. No ambition, no temptation, lures her to thought of foreign dominions. The legions which she sends forth are armed, not with the sword, but with the cross. The higher state to which she seeks the allegiance of all mankind is not of human but of divine origin. She cherishes no purpose save to merit the favor of Almighty God."

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

Banks Short-Sighted.

Carl Williams, editor of the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman, in speaking editorially of the uncertainty confronting the farmer this year, in consequence of no rain being in sight, or the possibility of 15 cent cotton following a carry-over of 4,000,000 bales, says, "Bankers have gone wild again and are advising their customers to plant cotton. They forget that cotton broke 100 banks in the three preceding years and kept the people of 50 Oklahoma counties in dire poverty."

Farmers Planting Peas.

It is said that the Mississippi experiment station has shown that the production of cotton following cotton on a Mississippi farm is 908 pounds of seed cotton per acre, 1,130 pounds where cotton followed corn, and 1,155 pounds where cotton followed two years of corn and soy beans, or a difference in favor of the rotation where legumes were used of about $20 per acre. It is most encouraging to see Brazos county farmers follow up their tractoring—the foundation for building a better soil—with plans for a crop rotation. F. E. Jones of Route 5 is planting his corn in wide rows, later planting peas between. Tom Benbow, Solon Morgan and Joe Holik will plant peas for the sole purpose of turning under for soil improvement. Others are planning similar work.

Two World Classes.

There are just two classes of people in the world: one that seeks to encourage and lend assistance—ofentimes by helpful criticism—to those endeavoring to render a helpful service in public or private life; the other class never sees the daylight for the hole in it, is brave in condemning those who are absent, and opposes everything without offering something better. To which class do you and I belong, neighbors?

Sims' Fertilizer Tests.

M. W. Sims, one of the leading farmers of the famous Brazos Bottom, plans to try out some fertilizer tests this year, probably using some 300 pounds per acre of a 12-3-0 and 12-5-0 fertilizer, following this up with a side dressing of nitrate of soda about the time the cotton is chopped out. Mr. Sims is not planning a wholesale use of fertilizer, but merely desires to make some tests to see if the results will pay in.

TABOR GIRLS CLUB ENJOY MEETING

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle)
TABOR, Mar. 5.—The girls' club held their regular meeting at 2:30 o'clock Monday evening. Every girl was present and took an active part in the cake baking under the supervision of Mrs. W. G. Colson, as Miss Laura Belle Roten could not be with us. The cake that was baked was a large angel food cake. It was served to the club boys and girls. Just one boy was absent, so a real "pep" meeting was held. Miss Mary Locke, our enthusiastic club leader, was present also.

Our school was visited today by L. W. Hill, national club leader, of Washington, D. C.; District Agent A. W. Buchanan, County Agent C. L. Beason, R. W. Persons and Secretary Sam E. Eberstadt of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce, and Home Demonstration Agent Miss Laura Belle Roten and Adult Club Leader Miss Mary Locke. They were greeted as they entered the room by a yell led by our yell leader, Freddie Conrad, who did much credit to himself in leading the yell. County Agent Beason then introduced Mr. Hill in a brief manner. Mr. Hill made a very instructive, as well as interesting talk on club work, pointing out to us that the best children in a school were in the club. It serves to bring the children closer together and teaches them to work for higher aims. He also showed us that the club had been a rural uplift, that it had made the county life worth while, also that it had furnished a pilot for boys and girls they could never have gotten otherwise. He gave us renewed courage by explaining to us how proud he was to carry our club book across to England in 1921, showing that Tabor Victory Club was the first club in Texas to ever win the state championship. He told us of many advantages the club boys and girls have over those who are not members and closed his talk by telling us the foundation of any club was intelligence, morality, economical efficiency and organization, and asking us to let our aim be "To ward the Stars."

Mr. Persons made a brief explanation of why the townpeople were taking so much interest in club work. He promised us a more lengthy explanation in the near future, as well as come clean in our club work. While Mr. Eberstadt gave us as our motto "Attend every meeting and be prompt." Short talks were also made by Prof. W. G. Colson, County Agent Beason, and Uncle Amos, in which the latter said he realized that Tabor club could do any thing. These were certainly words of encouragement to us. REPORTER.

SUPT. MADISON HALL RETURNS FROM MEET AT CINCINNATI, OHIO

"The Department of Superintendents of the National Education Association, meeting in the 56th annual session at Cincinnati, Ohio, February 21 to 26, inclusive, was attended by nearly 14,000 men and the Brazos Bottoms, as reports claim for the Mississippi Delta.

Enters Ton-Litter Again.

Carl Wipprecht, Brazos county's leading dairyman, won a bronze medal last year for the record he made in the Ton-Litter Contest, with a litter of seven pigs. One of these pigs in the contest last year is now a gilt less than a year old, with ten pigs which have been entered in the contest for this year. Watch the record they will make.

Louisiana Club Boy Wins.

And now comes the report that a 13-year-old club boy, Claud Craighead, of Athens, Louisiana, produced on one acre 2,967 pounds of seed cotton which ginned 1,323 pounds of lint, or three light bales. The cotton, grown under the supervision of County Agent Claude W. Davis, was fertilized with 1200 acid phosphate, 600 nitrate of soda, and 400 pounds of kainit, clean cultivation and close spacing being practiced. "More crop of fewer acres" should be our slogan.

For Mixing Fertilizers.

Bulletin C-34, by E. A. Miller, agronomist, of the Extension Service, tells how to mix fertilizers at home so as to make any of the standard formulas, such as 12-4-4, or 10-4-0, etc. If interested, ask your county agent for a copy of this bulletin.

British Statesman's Views.

In speaking before research men of the United States Department of Agriculture, Sir Daniel Hall, scientific adviser to the Minister of Agriculture of Great Britain, said, in speaking of the value and limits of agricultural research: "Agriculture is the fundamental industry, because we must all be fed, and yet you can not point to any part of the world where agricultural wealth is being turned out and find the producers in a flourishing condition." In speaking of the lure of the town, he says, "One must interpret the steady rise of food prices which has marked this century, a rise now being resumed after the excessive fluctuations caused by war, as evidence that we are approaching a limitation to the development of the towns because there is not enough food to go around." If you would like a broader viewpoint of the economic conditions confronting world agriculture, read the entire address of Sir Hall. Your agricultural program and mine help make up the condition about which this man speaks advisedly.

women school superintendents from all parts of this vast land, many of them from Texas," said Superintendent Madison Hall of the Bryan city school system this morning, following his return from the convention Sunday.

"I stopped over in St. Louis," said Mr. Hall, "between trains, and visited the schools, the art museum in the Jefferson Memorial Building where relics and antiques of the State of Missouri are kept for people to see, and other places. I found the schools doing much the same work as we are doing here, although having more years of experience and training to draw upon and greater financial resources to do the things that they want to undertake."

A Wonderful Meeting.
"I got a great deal of good from the convention at Cincinnati, learned many things from the experience of others and really believe it was one of the most wonderful meetings that I have ever attended from the standpoint of value to an educational executive," continued Mr. Hall. "The National Society for the Study of Education, of which I am proud to be a member, held two meetings. At the Saturday night meeting the subject of 'Reading' was discussed and on Tuesday evening the question of 'Individual Differences.' Some of the greatest men in this country, the leaders in educational thought, are members of this society and were present and expressed their views to the benefit of all there to hear."

A Teachers' Chorus.
"On Thursday afternoon 300 teachers from Indianapolis, comprising the Teachers' Chorus, came down to Cincinnati and rendered, in splendid manner some of the beautiful songs of yesterday. Then followed the magnificent pageant in which more than 1,000 school children of Cincinnati participated, which was to depict 'The Joys of Youth,' divided into sections of 'Play, Work and School.' It represented all the activities that children usually engage in. At the close every child that took part in the pageant was seated on raised benches on the enormous stage of the auditorium."

Thousand At Rotary.
Madison Hall, who is a Rotarian, could not refrain from telling of the splendid Rotary meeting which he attended on Thursday noon. He said there were some 800 members on hand when the luncheon began and almost as many more visitors. The principal address was delivered by William S. McAndrews, superintendent of the Chicago school system.

An enjoyable feature of Mr. Hall's trip was in meeting his brother, Connor Hall, from West Virginia, who came up to Cincinnati especially to see him. Mr. Hall and his brother, while in the city, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Taft, where there is a wonderful collection of works of art and historic relics, perhaps the most wonderful group or collection of its kind in this country. Superintendent Hall returns to his work with renewed enthusiasm for the profession which is moulding the youth of the country to make or break the future of civilization, and considers that the expense and time incurred by his trip was not in any measure equal to the good that he received from attending the sessions of the convention.

SHERIFF JESS CONLEE IN CAPTURE OF ALLEGED CAR THIEF FROM SAN ANTONIO

It will be remembered by readers of the Eagle that some time ago Sheriff Jess Conlee found an abandoned car with a catsup bottle full of whisky in it near College, at the same time catching a Mexican who proved to be a customer of the car but not the owner or driver. Now the sheriff has caught the Mexican, Fritz Walls, who is alleged to have stolen the car from San Antonio on November 23rd. The case will be tried in this county, said Sheriff Conlee, who said that there was ample evidence in the case from local people.

Lee Bolmanski, of near Mudville, pleaded guilty before Judge W. C. Davis in district court yesterday morning to a charge of stealing two automobile cushions and other parts from an auto in Bryan at different times during the last two weeks. He was arrested Sunday by Constable J. D. Conlee, Sr., in Bryan. Bolmanski paid a fine and costs of around $30, and made restitution of a number of the parts, paying damages of about $25 on parts which he was unable to return to the owner.

UNUSUAL ADDRESS ROTARY'S DISTRICT GOVERNOR H. ROGERS

If there were any man or woman in the audience at the meeting today of the Bryan Rotary Club, who heard District Governor Harry Rogers and came away without a new vision, a keener determination and a mighty resolve to live better, nobler and more serviceable lives for others, they were either deaf or had departed from the world as far as usefulness is concerned.

The regular Wednesday luncheon meeting at the Green Parrot Tea Room was advanced one day for the convenience of the district governor, who was to be present on today. The usual songs were led by S. Moylan Bird with the new pianist, Mrs. Roy Danforth, at the piano. Then the visitors were introduced and the program turned over to William Griffin, who first introduced F. L. Henderson who spoke briefly in introducing the speaker of the day and the honored guest, Harry Rogers of San Antonio, district governor of Rotary International. Mr. Henderson said that the world knew three classes of men: the constructive, the destructive and the neutral. After elaborating for a time, on each of these classes, he said that it was his privilege to introduce the speaker as one of the most typical and out-standing examples of the constructive class of mankind.

"My Obligation to Rotary"

In opening his address, which he stated would be on "My Obligation to Rotary," District Governor Rogers stressed the importance of attending the convention of this district No. 13 at Galveston on March 9 and 10 when the President of Rotary International and other officers will be present and have a place on the program.

"When Edward Bok was asked to choose the greatest word in the English language upon which to write an article, he chose, not 'faith,' not 'hope,' not 'love,' but 'service' for that word 'service' all these. It is a fine obligation to assume," said Mr. Rogers. "Then if 'service' be the greatest word in the English language, how shall we serve? If we truly serve God who gave us being, then we have pretty well defined religion; next, if we serve our country well, we have exemplified patriotism; and if we serve our community to the best of our ability, we have demonstrated our good citizenship."

If service be the proper goal, how are we to accomplish it. By serving through our businesses and professions in our every day life as we live it. The banker must serve through his business, the grocer in his way, etc. But in serving others, we must serve intelligently. Pat M. Neff, in an address before the Rotary Club at Waco, stated that there were more college graduates to sign the Texas declaration of independence than have since signed an equally important document. You can not serve well unless you are able to serve with a powerful intellect. The Boston university recently made a research and made two conclusions, one of them being that the value of a higher education in College or University is placed at $72,000 and that every day a student is out of school it costs him $9.19.

But every man in his profession must know his business well and something about other businesses too—or a broad general knowledge. This point was illustrated with a couple of fine examples by Mr. Rogers. Among other things he said that Gray's "Elegy" took seven years to be compiled but was worth it; Darwin took 14 years to compile the data and write the "Origin of Man"; but today it is difficult to disprove; showing that work must be done industriously or one must serve industriously as well as intelligently.

The third point he stressed in being of service was "optimism." He said it was shown by the war tests that the United States was a nation of sixth graders, but that the wonderful thing was that this country had by a system of education, raised that standard in only seven or eight years, where we had passed through the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, and now were in the tenth, a record unequalled in the history of the world. He said this ought to show that this country is progressing and not going to the "bow-wows." We are growing better physically as we put in France the finest army of men ever put into the field. He then gave figures showing the United States leading the world by more than fifty per cent in production of gold, silver, lead, corn, wheat, iron, steel, etc.

Mrs. Lee J. Rountree spoke at chapel services at Allen Academy this morning at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Henry Locke went to San Antonio today for a short visit with relatives and friends.

He said that nation has 115,000,000 people. Twenty-one million of them are families. We have over eighteen million dwelling houses and six million of them are owned by those who live in them and not one penny of debt. Three million of the balance are owned but mortgaged. Our farming population is not bankrupt as some would have you believe, but our farmers are worth in this country forty billion dollars.

Do you know that the Bible is still the world's "best seller?" Would that indicate that the world has gone bad. Ninety per cent of our congressman are church members and half of the other 10 per cent are Masons. Last year more men and women joined the church than any previous year in history. He then dwelt on care of helpless and afflicted and the Rotary's educational program for the youth of the land. He closed with the story of the man who did his best each day for that was the last wish of his mother and said that would be a fine example for everyone to follow.

The afternoon was cold, but a blazing fire made the sitting room of Mrs. Jones' attractive home inviting and delightful. The meeting was called to order by the chapter president, Mrs. Albert Buchanan, who led the opening prayer. Roll call of the chapter membership was then given by Mrs. Egbert Jones, secretary, pro tem, after which the minutes of the January meeting were read and approved. Mrs. J. B. Stevenson gave the treasurer's report.

rated stand at the east entrance of the Capitol just after he had taken his second oath of office as President of the United States.

Dividing his attention almost equally between affairs at home and abroad, and between things accomplished and achievements hoped for, Mr. Coolidge spoke with assurance as to the future, declaring that because of action already taken, an era of prosperity lay ahead and a firmer courage and a higher hope inspired the heart of all humanity.

Reduced Taxation.
"We have been, and propose to be, more and more American," he declared. "If we have any heritage, it has been that. If we have any destiny, we have found it in that direction." Accord with this purpose, he asserted, demands the conduct of government along certain definite lines. These lines in the field of domestic affairs point, first, to the exercise of greater economy in government, and second, to reduction of taxation, he continued. The recent election he said, had demonstrated that "the policy that stands out with the greatest clearness is that of economy in public expenditure with reduction and reform of taxation."

"I favor the policy of economy, not because I wish to save money, but because I wish to save people," he continued. "The men and women of this country who toil are the ones who bear the cost of government. Every dollar that we carelessly waste means that their life will be so much the more meager. Every dollar that we prudently save means that their life will be so much more abundant."

Peaceful Intention.
The practice of such economy, he declared, has brought the time when there can be further tax reduction and "when, unless we wish to hamper the people in their right to earn a living, we must have tax reform." He declared his opposition to "excessive high tax rates because they produce little or no revenue, because they are bad for the country, and finally, because they are wrong. The verdict of the country has been given on this question," he added. "That verdict stands. We shall do well to heed it."

Peaceful Intention.
Prefacing his discussion of America's relation to the world with the declaration that "our country represents nothing but peaceful intentions toward all the earth," Mr. Coolidge set forth ways and means of manifesting that spirit while at the same time maintaining "such a military force as comports with the dignity and security of a great people."

Common Honesty.
He reiterated his advocacy of American adherence to the Permanent Court of International Justice, declared the America having taken the lead in the movement for limitation of armaments, "that lead America must continue to hold," favored continuance of the policy of participation in world conferences "when ever condition are such that there is even a promise that practical and favorable results might be secured," bespoke continuance of aid to mitigate human suffering and assist in the rehabilitation of distressed nations, and expressed sympathy with the movement to clarify international law and to bring about the outlawing of aggressive war.

"We have made a great contribution to the settlement of contentions and differences in both Europe and Asia," he said in concluding his discussion of foreign affairs. "But there is a very definite point beyond which we can not go. We can only help those who help themselves. Mindful of these limitations, the one great duty that stands out requires us to use our enormous powers to trim the balance of the world."

Only once in his address did Mr. Coolidge refer to the election which today brought him to the Presidency for a term in his own right, and that was after he had declared strongly in favor of strict party responsibility adding that "common honesty and good faith with the people who support a party at the polls require that party, when it enters office to assume the control of that portion of the government to which it has been elected."

Merit God's Power.
"This administration has come in, to power with a very clear and definite mandate from the people," he said. "The people declared that they wanted their rights to have not a political but a judicial determination, and their independence and freedom continued and supported by having the ownership and control of their property, not in the government, but in their hands."

Pursuing further his discussion of domestic affairs, he declared that "those who want their rights respected under the constitution and the law ought to set the example themselves of observing the constitution and the law," and that "we cannot permit any inquisition either within or without the law or apply any religious test to the holding of office."

"America," he concluded, "seeks no earthly empire built on blood and force. No ambition, no temptation, lures her to thought of foreign dominions. The legions which she sends forth are armed, not with the sword, but with the cross. The higher state to which she seeks the allegiance of all mankind is not of human but of divine origin. She cherishes no purpose save to merit the favor of Almighty God."

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

Banks Short-Sighted.

Carl Williams, editor of the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman, in speaking editorially of the uncertainty confronting the farmer this year, in consequence of no rain being in sight, or the possibility of 15 cent cotton following a carry-over of 4,000,000 bales, says, "Banks have gone wild again and are advising their customers to plant cotton. They forget that cotton broke 100 banks in the three preceding years and kept the people of 50 Oklahoma counties in dire poverty."

Farmers Planting Peas.

It is said that the Mississippi experiment station has shown that the production of cotton following cotton on a Mississippi farm is 908 pounds of seed cotton per acre, 1,130 pounds where cotton followed corn, and 1,155 pounds where cotton followed two years of corn and soy beans, or a difference in favor of the rotation where legumes were used of about $20 per acre. It is most encouraging to see Brazos county farmers follow up their tracing—the foundation for building a better soil—with plans for a crop rotation. F. E. Jones of Route 5 is planting his corn in wide rows, later planting peas between. Tom Benbow, Solon Morgan and Joe Holik will plant peas for the sole purpose of turning under for soil improvement. Others are planning similar work.

Two World Classes.

There are just two classes of people in the world: one that seeks to encourage and lend assistance—of tentimes by helpful criticism—to those endeavoring to render a helpful service in public or private life; the other class never sees the doughnut for the hole in it, is brave in condemning those who are absent, and opposes everything without offering something better. To which class do you and I belong, neighbor?

Sims' Fertilizer Tests.

M. W. Sims, one of the leading farmers of the famous Brazos Bottom, plans to try out some fertilizer tests this year, probably using some 300 pounds per acre of a 12-3-0 and 12-5-0 fertilizer, following this up with a side dressing of nitrate of soda about the time the cotton is chopped out. Mr. Sims is not planning a wholesale use of fertilizer, but merely desires to make some tests to see if the results will pay in.

TABOR GIRLS CLUB ENJOY MEETING

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle)
TABOR, Mar. 5.—The girls' club held their regular meeting at 2:30 o'clock Monday evening. Every girl was present and took an active part in the cake baking under the supervision of Mrs. W. G. Colson, as Miss Laura Belle Roten could not be with us. The cake that was baked was a large angel food cake. It was served to the club boys and girls. Just one boy was absent, so a real "pep" meeting was held. Miss Mary Locke, our enthusiastic club leader, was present also.

Our school was visited today by L. W. Hill, national club leader, of Washington, D. C.; District Agent A. W. Buchanan, County Agent C. L. Beason, R. W. Persons and Secretary Sam E. Eberstadt of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce, and Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Laura Belle Roten and Adult Club Leader Miss Mary Locke. They were greeted as they entered the room by a yell led by our yell leader, Freddie Conrad, who did much credit to himself in leading the yell. County Agent Beason then introduced Mr. Hill in a brief manner. Mr. Hill made a very instructive, as well as interesting talk on club work, pointing out to us that the best children in a school were in the club. It serves to bring the children closer together and teaches them to work for higher aims. He also showed us that the club had been a rural uplift, that it had made the county life worthwhile, also that it had furnished a pilot for boys and girls they could never have gotten otherwise. He gave us renewed courage by explaining to us how proud he was to carry our club book across to England in 1921, showing that Tabor Victory Club was the first club in Texas to ever win the state championship. He told us of many advantages the club boys and girls have over those who are not members and closed his talk by telling us the foundation of any club was intelligence, morality, economical efficiency and organization, and asking us to let our aim be "Toward the Stars."

Mr. Persons made a brief explanation of why the townpeople were taking so much interest in club work. He promised us a more lengthy explanation in the near future, as well as impressed on our mind to always come clean in our club work. While Mr. Eberstadt gave us as our motto "Attend every meeting and be prompt." Short talks were also made by Prof. W. G. Colson, County Agent Beason, and Uncle Amos, in which the latter said he realized that Tabor club could do any thing. These were certainly words of encouragement to us. REPORTER.

SUPT. MADISON HALL RETURNS FROM MEET AT CINCINNATI, OHIO

"The Department of Superintendents of the National Education Association, meeting in the 56th annual session at Cincinnati, Ohio, February 21 to 26, inclusive, was attended by nearly 14,000 men and the Brazos Bottoms, as reports claim for the Mississippi Delta.

Enters Ton-Litter Again.
Carl Wipprecht, Brazos county's leading dairyman, won a bronze medal last year for the record he made in the Ton-Litter Contest, with a litter of seven pigs. One of these pigs in the contest last year is now a gilt less than a year old, with ten pigs which have been entered in the contest for this year. Watch the record they will make.

Louisiana Club Boy Wins.

And now comes the report that a 13-year-old club boy, Claud Craighead, of Athens, Louisiana, produced on one acre 2,967 pounds of seed cotton which gained 1,323 pounds of lint, or three light bales. The cotton, grown under the supervision of County Agent Claude W. Davis, was fertilized with 1200 acid phosphate, 600 nitrate of soda, and 400 pounds of kainit, clean cultivation and close spacing being practiced. "More crop of fewer acres" should be our slogan.

For Mixing Fertilizers.

Bulletin C-34, by E. A. Miller, agronomist, of the Extension Service, tells how to mix fertilizers at home so as to make any of the standard formulas, such as 12-4-4, or 10-4-0, etc. If interested, ask your county agent for a copy of this bulletin.

British Statesman's Views.

In speaking before research men of the United States Department of Agriculture, Sir Daniel Hall, scientific adviser to the Minister of Agriculture of Great Britain, said, in speaking of the value and limits of agricultural research: "Agriculture is the fundamental industry, because we must all be fed, and yet you can not point to any part of the world where agricultural wealth is being turned out and find the producers in a flourishing condition." In speaking of the lure of the town, he says, "One must interpret the steady rise of food prices which has marked this century, a rise now being resumed after the excessive fluctuations caused by war, as evidence that we are approaching a limitation to the development of the towns because there is not enough food to go around." If you would like a broad viewpoint of the economic conditions confronting world agriculture, read the entire address of Sir Hall. Your agricultural program and mine help make up the condition about which this man speaks advisedly.

women school superintendents from all parts of this vast land, many of them from Texas," said Superintendent Madison Hall of the Bryan city school system this morning, following his return from the convention Sunday.

"I stopped over in St. Louis," said Mr. Hall, "between trains, and visited the schools, the art museum in the Jefferson Memorial Building where relics and antiques of the State of Missouri are kept for people to see, and other places. I found the schools doing much the same work as we are doing here, although having more years of experience and training to draw upon and greater financial resources to do the things that they want to undertake."

A Wonderful Meeting.
"I got a great deal of good from the convention at Cincinnati, learned many things from the experience of others and really believe it was one of the most wonderful meetings that I have ever attended from the standpoint of value to an educational executive," continued Mr. Hall. "The National Society for the Study of Education, of which I am proud to be a member, held two meetings. At the Saturday night meeting the subject of 'Reading' was discussed and on Tuesday evening the question of 'Individual Differences.' Some of the greatest men in this country, the leaders in educational thought, are members of this society and were present and expressed their views to the benefit of all there to hear."

A Teachers' Chorus.

"On Thursday afternoon 300 teachers from Indianapolis, comprising the Teachers' Chorus, came down to Cincinnati and rendered, in splendid manner some of the beautiful songs of yesterday. Then followed the magnificent pageant in which more than 1,000 school children of Cincinnati participated, which was to depict 'The Joys of Youth,' divided into sections of 'Play, Work and School.' It represented all the activities that children usually engage in. At the close every child that took part in the pageant was seated on raised benches on the enormous stage of the auditorium."

Thousands At Rotary.

Madison Hall, who is a Rotarian, could not refrain from telling of the splendid Rotary meeting which he attended on Thursday night. He said there were some 800 members on hand when the luncheon began and almost as many more visitors. The principal address was delivered by William S. McAndrews, superintendent of the Chicago school system.

An enjoyable feature of Mr. Hall's trip was in meeting his brother, Connor Hall, from West Virginia, who came up to Cincinnati especially to see him. Mr. Hall and his brother, while in the city, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Taft, where there is a wonderful collection of works of art and historic relics, perhaps the most wonderful group or collection of its kind in this country. Superintendent Hall returns to his work with renewed enthusiasm for the profession which is moulding the youth of the country to make or break the future of civilization, and considers that the expense and time incurred by his trip was not in any measure equal to the good that he received from attending the sessions of the convention.

SHERIFF JESS CONLEE IN CAPTURE OF ALLEGED CAR THIEF FROM SAN ANTONIO

It will be remembered by readers of the Eagle that some time ago Sheriff Jess Conlee found an abandoned car with a catsup bottle full of whisky in it near College, at the same time catching a Mexican who proved to be a customer of the car but not the owner or driver. Now the sheriff has caught the Mexican, Fritz Walls, who is alleged to have stolen the car from San Antonio on November 23rd. The case will be tried in this county, said Sheriff Conlee, who said that there was ample evidence in the case from local people.

RESIDENT OF STEELE'S STORE PLEADS GUILTY STEALING AUTO PARTS

Lee Bolmanski, of near Mudville, pleaded guilty before Judge W. C. Davis in district court yesterday morning to a charge of stealing two automobile cushions and other parts from an auto in Bryan at different times during the last two weeks. He was arrested Sunday by Constable J. D. Conlee, Sr., in Bryan. Bolmanski paid a fine and costs of around $30, and made restitution of a number of the parts, paying damages of about $25 on parts which he was unable to return to the owner.

UNUSUAL ADDRESS ROTARY'S DISTRICT GOVERNOR H. ROGERS

If there were any man or woman in the audience at the meeting today of the Bryan Rotary Club, who heard District Governor Harry Rogers and came away without a new vision, a keener determination and a mighty resolve to live better, nobler and more serviceable lives for others, they were either deaf or had departed from the world as far as usefulness is concerned.

The regular Wednesday luncheon meeting at the Green Parrot Tea Room was advanced one day for the convenience of the district governor, who was to be present on today. The usual songs were led by S. Moylan Bird with the new pianist, Mrs. Roy Danforth, at the piano. Then the visitors were introduced and the program turned over to William Griffin, who first introduced F. L. Henderson, who spoke briefly in introducing the speaker of the day and the honored guest, Harry Rogers of San Antonio, district governor of Rotary International. Mr. Henderson said that the world knew three classes of men: the constructive, the destructive and the neutral. After elaborating for a time, on each of these classes, he said that it was his privilege to introduce the speaker as one of the most typical and out-standing examples of the constructive class of mankind.

"My Obligation to Rotary"

In opening his address, which he stated would be on "My Obligation to Rotary," District Governor Rogers stressed the importance of attending the convention of this district No. 13 at Galveston on March 9 and 10 when the President of Rotary International and other officers will be present and have a place on the program.

"When Edward Bok was asked to choose the greatest word in the English language upon which to write an article, he chose, not 'faith,' not 'hope,' not 'love,' but 'service,' for that word 'service' all these. It is a fine obligation to assume," said Mr. Rogers. "Then if 'service' be the greatest word in the English language, how shall we serve? If we truly serve God who gave us being, then we have pretty well defined religion; next, if we serve our country well, we have exemplified patriotism; and if we serve our community to the best of our ability, we have demonstrated our good citizenship."

If service be the proper goal, how are we to accomplish it. By serving through our businesses and professions in our every day life as we live it. The banker must serve through his business, the grocer in his way, etc. But in serving others, we must serve intelligently. Pat M. Neff, in an address before the Rotary Club at Waco, stated that there were more college graduates to sign the Texas declaration of independence than have since signed an equally important document. You can not serve well unless you are able to serve with a powerful intellect. The Boston University recently made a research and made two conclusions, one of them being that the value of a higher education in College or University is placed at $72,000 and that every day a student is out of school it costs him $9.19.

But every man in his profession must know his business well and something about other businesses too—or a broad general knowledge. This point was illustrated with a couple of fine examples by Mr. Rogers. Among other things he said that Gray's "Elegy" took seven years to be compiled but was worth it; Darwin took 14 years to compile the data and write the "Origin of Man" but today it is difficult to disprove; showing that work must be done industriously or one must serve industriously as well as intelligently.

The third point he stressed in being of service was "optimism." He said it was shown by the war tests that the United States was a nation of sixth graders, but that the wonderful thing was that this country had by a system of education, raised that standard in only seven or eight years, where we had passed through the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, and now were in the tenth, a record unequalled in the history of the world. He said this ought to show that this country is progressing and not going to the "bow-wows." We are growing better physically as we put in France the finest army of men ever put into the field. He then gave figures showing the United States leading the world by more than fifty per cent in production of gold, silver, lead, corn, wheat, iron, steel, etc.

Mrs. Lee J. Rountree spoke at chapel services at Allen Academy this morning at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Henry Locke went to San Antonio today for a short visit with relatives and friends.

He said that nation has 115,000,000 people. Twenty-one million of them are families. We have over eighteen million dwelling houses and six million of them are owned by those who live in them and not one penny of debt. Three million of the balance are owned but mortgaged. Our farming population is not bankrupt as some would have you believe, but our farmers are worth in this country forty billion dollars.

Do you know that the Bible is still the world's "best seller?" Would that indicate that the world has gone bad. Ninety per cent of our congressmen are church members and half of the other 10 per cent are Masons. Last year more men and women joined the church than any previous year in history. He then dwelt on care of helpless and afflicted and the Rotary's educational program for the youth of the land. He closed with the story of the man who did his best each day for that was the last wish of his mother and said that would be a fine example for everyone to follow.

The afternoon was cold, but a blazing fire made the sitting room of Mrs. Jones' attractive home inviting and delightful. The meeting was called to order by the chapter president, Mrs. Albert Buchanan, who led the opening prayer. Roll call of the chapter membership was then given by Mrs. Egbert Jones, secretary, pro tem, after which the minutes of the January meeting were read and approved. Mrs. J. B. Stevenson gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Webb Howell gave a splendid report of the history essay contest to be inaugurated by the chapter, and the rules and regulations of this contest will be published in the Eagle at an early date.

Fine Musical Program.

It was a great pleasure to the members of the chapter to have with them again at this meeting Mrs. Walter J. Higgs, the chapter secretary, who has been absent from the meeting for several months on account of illness. She was given a cordial welcome.
